Dear

Armour Legal Pty Ltd (under management)

I am writing to you as Manager of the law practice of Armour Legal, as appointed by the Victorian Legal Services Board. I attach a copy of my notice of appointment.

The purpose of this letter is to notify you that, in my capacity as Manager, I have determined to wind down the law practice of Armour Legal and transfer responsibility of the files of Armour Legal to Forty Four Degrees Lawyers & Consultants (Forty Four Degrees);

Forty Four Degrees Lawyers & Consultants

Having facilitated and completed a sale process, I have determined that Forty Four Degrees is the most appropriate firm to take on the responsibility of the files of Armour Legal, including your file.

Forty Four Degrees is a well-established law practice with a focus on servicing a broad range of clients, including those from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds. The principal of Forty Four Degrees has significant experience in the conduct of criminal, civil, commercial and migration law matters. Forty Four Degrees also has an office in the CBD which is a short walking distance from the previous office of Armour Legal.

Forty Four Degrees will shortly be in contact with you to discuss your file, but in the meantime please feel free to contact them yourself. Their contact details are set out below:

Forty Four Degrees Lawyers & Consultants

50/120 Collins St, Melbourne VIC 3000

Contact Person: Leila Chalk (0423 495 217)

Website: www.fortyfourdegrees.com.au/armour-legal

I commend Forty Four Degrees to you to assist on your matter.

You are not obliged to engage Forty Four Degrees to act for you. If you do not wish for Forty Four Degrees to act for you, please provide those instructions within 14 days of receiving this letter. However, if I do not hear from you, I will transfer responsibility of your matter to Forty Four Degrees.

Should you have any queries in relation to this letter, please contact Andrew Dowling of our office on (03) 9672 3212.

Yours faithfully
