CRIME CHECK........456-2233
Spokane C.O.P.S. has over 200 volunteers who are professionally trained by the Spokane Police Department and the City of Spokane to address the community concerns of citizens who come to the C.O.P.S. Shops for assistance.

C.O.P.S. Logan is one of 10 C.O.P.S. Shops in the city where the volunteers and law enforcement officers work side by side to prevent crime and promote public safety.

Spokane C.O.P.S. also partners with Spokane County Sheriff’s S.C.O.P.E. Organization. They operate similar volunteer stations in the county.

Doug Strosahl is the Neighborhood Conditions Officer at C.O.P.S. Northwest.

Each C.O.P.S. Shop has a Neighborhood Conditions Officer. The partnership between the Police Department and Spokane C.O.P.S. is the core of what makes the C.O.P.S. Shops so successful in helping citizens with their community concerns.

Matt Keller is a Community Corrections Officer at C.O.P.S. Logan.

Most C.O.P.S. Shops have corrections officers who have an office there and see their clients on supervision from their neighborhood. Spokane C.O.P.S. has a strong partnership with the WA State Department of Corrections and has always had corrections officers in the C.O.P.S. Shops.
