INTERPRETING THE BOOK OF REVELATION

For many Catholics today, interpreting the Book of Revelation presents an almost insurmountable challenge. The dizzying array of exotic symbols and apocalyptic warnings can make St. John's glorious vision seem more like an incomprehensible nightmare, prompting us to ask, "What did he really see?" Scott Hahn's covenantal-historical approach to this amazing book of Scripture has made The End: A Study of the Book of Revelation one of his most fascinating and best-loved series. In fact, the bedrock insights presented in this remarkable presentation represent the theological foundation for The Lamb's Supper.

In this dramatic Bible-study, Scott Hahn explains that for those willing to examine the historical background of the New Testament, the Book of Revelation actually summarizes many central doctrines of the Catholic Faith: the intercession of the saints, the universal Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the perpetuity of Christ's paschal sacrifice, and the central importance of the Church as the goal of history.

Clearly unveiling the connection between theology, liturgy and history, Dr. Hahn's insights into Revelation have the potential to change the way you worship by helping you discover in the Mass much more than a community celebration. St. John's vision reveals a heavenly liturgy that is an explosion of Divine Power into which God's people enter and join the ranks of the worshippers around His throne.

Clear, Comprehensive and Doctrinally Sound

Join Fr. Steve on Tuesdays at 7:00 PM from March 16th to June 1st for this CD audio presentation on the Book of Revelation via Zoom. You will receive a Zoom link after you register at Faith: the Next Generation - Pass It On!

Boldly go where many have gone before and help pass on the Good News of Jesus Christ and our Catholic faith! Very soon, the children and young people of Saints Peter and Paul Parish, grades 1 through 7 will sign up to continue learning about Jesus and the Catholic faith.

Our summer program has expanded and although, it may be a little different than previous years, we still need catechists and aides to help nurture the faith of our young people. We are planning our fall program as well and are requesting those willing to participate in this bold endeavor to make the commitment. I, myself, have learned, and continue to learn, so much from the children! As you nurture the faith of our young, you will learn and grow as well.

The summer program is being offered for one week, from August 2 through August 6. The fall program begins in mid-September. Catechists and aides are needed for grades 1 through 7. We provide you with training, materials and support. If you are interested or for more information, please contact Rosemarie Iacovone at 856-589-3366 or email at riacovone@churchofstpeterandpaul.org

Don't miss this opportunity to pass on the faith to the children and youth of our parish.

Parish Life

Saint Joseph, "A Father in the Shadows"

In his relationship to Jesus, Joseph was the earthly shadow of the heavenly Father: he watched over him and protected him, never leaving him to go his own way. Fathers are not born, but made. A man does not become a father simply by bringing a child into the world, but by taking up the responsibility to care for that child. Whenever a man accepts responsibility for the life of another, in some way he becomes a father to that person. Being a father entails introducing children to life and reality. Not holding them back, being overprotective or possessive, but rather making them capable of deciding for themselves, enjoying freedom and exploring new possibilities. Perhaps for this reason, Joseph is traditionally called a "most chaste" father. That title is not simply a sign of affection, but the summation of an attitude that is the opposite of possessiveness. Chastity is freedom from possessiveness in every sphere of one's life. Only when love is chaste, is it truly love. A possessive love ultimately becomes dangerous: it imprisons, constricts and makes for misery.

Joseph found happiness not in mere self-sacrifice but in self-gift. In him, we never see frustration but only trust. His patient silence was the prelude to concrete expressions of trust. Our world today needs fathers. It has no use for tyrants who would domineer others as a means of compensating for their own needs. It rejects those who confuse authority with authoritarianism, service with servility, discussion with oppression, charity with a welfare mentality, power with destruction. Every true vocation is born of the gift of oneself, which is the fruit of mature sacrifice. The priesthood and consecrated life likewise require this kind of maturity. Whatever our vocation, whether to marriage, celibacy or virginity, our gift of self will not come to fulfilment if it stops at sacrifice; were that the case, instead of becoming a sign of the beauty and joy of love, the gift of self would risk being an expression of unhappiness, sadness and frustration.

When fathers refuse to live the lives of their children for them, new and unexpected vistas open up. Every child is the bearer of a unique mystery that can only be brought to light with the help of a father who respects that child's freedom. A father who realizes that he is most a father and educator at the point when he becomes "useless", when he sees that his child has become independent and can walk the paths of life unaccompanied. When he becomes like Joseph, who always knew that his child was not his own but had merely been entrusted to his care. In the end, this is what Jesus would have us understand when he says: "Call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven" (Mt 23:9).

In every exercise of our fatherhood, we should always keep in mind that it has nothing to do with possession, but is rather a "sign" pointing to a greater fatherhood. In a way, we are all like Joseph: a shadow of the heavenly Father, who "makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust" (Mt 5:45). And a shadow that follows his Son.

FASTING & ABSTINENCE

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.
