

Film & Foto Shootings

Needed data for getting the permission of filming & photo shootings in the National Museums of Berlin

Museum&Location is your contact for commercial filming and photo shooting requests at the National Museums in Berlin

For your request we kindly ask for:

- Date and period of your shooting
- Exact Location
- Description of use
- Description of content
- Information about end customer and production company
- Type and duration of the medial distribution
- Using technology
- Size of the Team
- Further points, that could might be important

Next steps:

- We kindly ask the director of the museum | general director of the National museums of Berlin for the permission.
- You receive an offer about the user fee for the motives, the service charges that are to be expected (cleaning, supervisory staff, security, a company technician etc) and further details.
- We are taking care about the contract for your shooting.

In consultation with you and the according museum, we are coordinating the detailed process of your work, considering the regular operation schedule of the museum and the mandatory guidelines for film & photo shootings in the National Museums of Berlin.

The user fee:

The amount of the fee depends on the duration and type of the expected filming/shooting and duration of use. We will gladly make you an offer. The fee allows you to get access to the relevant museum for your filming/shooting.

Further you will purchase a license for your desired type of use (approved and agreed by contract).

The National Museums of Berlin receive 100 % of the profit of the filming/shooting fee to acquire additional liquidity for projects in future.

In addition to the fee, if needed, additional costs like cleaning, supervisory staff, security, a company technician etc. can arise.

If fashion shooting, motion picture, documentary or television film - the National Museums of Berlin got many options to offer settings and cultural highlights.

Feel free to contact us – we are happy to support and guide your project!
