MISCELLANEOUS:

Church St. Bridge has been closed for repairs to the sewer line running beneath the creek. It collapsed 20 feet down. Rob Guy has to hire some equipment to dig that deep and shore it up. They will clean it out and then camera it to ensure it is clear. Eventually, the line will have to be replaced.

Ashley Weakland reported that they are finishing the drywall on the BOCES house. The hole has been dug for the basement and they hope to have the house placed at the end of May or beginning of June.

Rob stated that the blacktop plant opens the 29th and crews will begin patching pot holes, etc.

Mayor Buckley and Bill Hogan toured James St. Park yesterday, looking at areas that need repairs.

Rich Dunning distributed and explained the preliminary report on the Disinfection and Facility Needs Study for the WPCP.

Lenny Fucci said that Albany has approved Contract 1 for the WTP upgrades. The legal ad will be in Friday's paper and the bid opening will be May 16. With regards to the recent leaks, Fucci said that we were using 2.9 million gallons per day in February. After the leak detection company came in and leaks were repaired, we are now using 750,000 less gallons per day.
