

Terms & Conditions

Thanks for choosing MasonVirtual here are the Terms and Conditions that govern the use of the service.

1. All purchases are final and there are no refunds once the service has been rendered by the Firm.
2. No other services will be provided by the Firm other than those the client purchased. If the client requires additional services, the Firm will inform the client of the cost.
3. The Firm is not obligated to represent the client beyond the services that were purchased.
4. In terms of the Entertainment Contract Drafting Service, client understands that the fee listed is for drafting a contract up to five (5) pages. If the contract exceeds the page limit, client will be charged an additional $75.00 per page. Client will be notified via email that the contract exceeds the page limit and will have the option to pay the difference or request a refund. Further, the listed fee entitles the client to a final draft of the contract and one (1) edit if necessary. The Firm will not contact the other party or engage in back and forth negotiations. There will be no follow up discussions once the contract has been finalized.
5. In terms of the Entertainment Contract Review Service, client understands that the fee listed is for reviewing a single contract up to five (5) pages. Multiple contracts cannot be combined into a single .pdf. If the contract exceeds the page limit, client will be charged an additional $50.00 per page. Client will be notified via email that the contract exceeds the page limit and will have the option to pay the difference or request a refund. If the contract turns out to be multiple contracts in one .pdf client will be billed the total fee to review each contract and will be notified via email. At this time, client has the option to pay the difference in the fee or request a refund. The listed fee entitles the client to a written explanation of the client's rights and one (1) edit if necessary. There will be no back and forth negotiations or follow-up discussions.
