

Wayne & Adele's Garden of Eating

Australian in Townsville

There's irreverence at every turn in this husband-and-wife-run gourmet restaurant situated in an Aussie backyard (well, courtyard at least).

Those who like a side serving of quirky with their grub shouldn't miss mains including duck ricotta gnocchi or kangaroo fillet with curried field mushrooms and bacon mash. And on no account bypass the cashew cheesecake if it's on the menu.