If you have an arrest, this is your chance to tell me your side of the story. Do you have any quirks or personality traits that would make you someone we would like to work with? Tell us what may set you apart as a person that we should call in for an interview. If you want, send a photo of yourself. If you run marathons, send a photo of you crossing the finish line. If you are a cook, send a photo of you and the latest culinary creation. Help us get to know you. It will speed things up if you attach a photo of your driver's license and social security card as we do a quick background screening of you before we even think about calling you for an interview.
