One hundred and seven years ago, the Holly Hotel was nearly destroyed by fire on January 19th, 1913. In 1978, exactly sixty-five years later, (again on January 19,) the Hotel was consumed by fire and nearly destroyed.

A complete renovation was done after each fire and our 1978-79 restoration duplicated the original building architecture from 1891.

Celebrate this milestone with us on one night only, Friday, January 17, 2020 with 42% off your dinner food purchases for all Holly Hotel Dining Club members and their guests!

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

May what you see in the mirror delight you, and what others see in you delight them. May someone love you enough to forgive your faults, be blind to your blemishes and tell the world about your virtues. May we live in a world at peace and never lose interest in every golden sunset, every flower’s unfolding petals, every baby’s smile, every lover’s kiss and every wonderful, astonishing, miraculous beat of your heart!

William Blake once said, “In seed time, learn; in harvest, teach; in winter, enjoy.”

January in Michigan means shorter days, colder nights, slippery sidewalks and the end of the hustle-and-bustle of the holidays.

It’s also a great time to enjoy a delightful dinner at the Holly Hotel!

Join us on January 31 and February 1-2 for an elegant, winter-inspired eight course dinner, specially priced for our Holly Hotel Club Members.

A perfect way to warm up our Midwest winter!
