Preamble

Bangladesh was born in 1971 premised on a secular and democratic ethos as paragraph 2 of the preamble of the first constitution of Bangladesh which was adopted on November 4, 1972 accepted 'nationalism', 'socialism', 'democracy' and secularism as state principles. But "soon after its birth, the political history and politics of Bangladesh found itself within the twists and turns of majoritarian politics. Through the Eighth Amendment to the constitution on 7 June 1988, Islam was declared as the state religion of Bangladesh (Article 2 Clause A) with the provision that other religions may be practiced in peace and harmony. Since then the minority community (largely Hindus) face discrimination and continuous atrocities and violence as reported by many scholars and world bodies. It is also documented that the political process and the political parties were a major source of discrimination against minorities.

Hindus are being marginalized in Bangladesh. Number of Hindus in Bangladesh is decreasing dramatically.

What are the reasons behind this?

Let's have a look on recent incidents.

January 2016

Bangladesh is a land of impunity. In the majority fields criminals use political influence. Sometimes they resisted taking next effective step of local administration through influencing the victims. This figure of human rights violations in this year have been collected from various sources. This is the reasons that Hindus are marginalizing in Bangladesh. Pls see--

January-2: A minority family is a hostage by few miscreants. Criminals are trying to drive out them from their land and then they will seize minority's property. But the law enforcers are not doing anything against the criminals. This Hindu family is living under insecure.

More than 100 Hindu families fled from their houses for saving lives after local UP election

January-3: Few criminals torched Sri Kali M Bangladesh was born in 1971 premised on a secular and democratic ethos as paragraph 2 of the preamble of the first constitution of Bangladesh which was adopted on November 4, 1972 accepted ‘nationalism’, ‘socialism’, ‘democracy’ and secularism as state principles. Sept 25: Cow slaughtered at the entrance of Hindu temple, in Dhaka

The cow had been slaughtered at the entrance of Hindu temple' was a facebook posting on Friday 25.09.2015 - the day of Eid-ul Azha of Muslims. Eibela.com team visit the spot late in the afternoon and find the forehead of a slaughtered cow still there - in front of the temple located beside HatirJheel Link Road, Rampura, a busy hub of Dhaka.

Needless to mention, the cow is regarded as sacred animal and worshipped by Hindus, whereas, the local Hindus of the vicinity witnessed with naked eyes their worshipped one being slaughtered (as sacrifice for Eid) at the entrance of the Sree Sree Gourango Mahaprovu Mondir, Rampura, while others rushed to the spot and found the cow lying spattering blood just in front of their holy shrine - temple.

The post slaughtering ordeals such as skinning and mincing meat and so on were done there as well. Many other Hindus gathered to the spot being informed by facebook posting, and witnessed the ordeals.

Eibela reporters delved into the issue and revealed that the slaughtering of cow at the very front of the temple gate of Hindus was a deliberate action by powerful locals purporting to evict the local Hindus from there so as to grab their lands and properties, which is a regular practice more or less the country over for long. Panicked Hindus were tight-lipped initially while eibela reporters tried to interview, however, the mondir committee braved to voice their concerns to eibela.

Uttam Kumar Das President and Bholanath Das (Bhulu), General Secretary of the temple panel complain, it is Shamim Anwar, former General Secretary of Awami League of the Ward No-20 and former Organizing secretary of Gulshan thana Awami League who masterminded and had the provocative act executed. 'We', says Uttam Kumar Das, 'more than two hundred Hindus, have been living here for generations offering prayer in this Mondir'. They further added, before the development of Hatirjheel project, this area was underdeveloped and dirty, but they could live rather peacefully, but the development of Hatirjheel has had a huge price hike of the land, which has attracted the land grabbers like Shamim Anwar and others. The land of the mondhir premise is now their target.

The committee raises the question, if such thing can happen during the regime of Awami League by Awami League leaders, then what should be their fate? Should one Shamim Ahmed be allowed to breach the harmony of hundred years between the Muslims and Hindus for his one end? They express concern of insecurity and plead for the attention of the Premier Sheikh Hasina to the issue for the sake of the harmony of the Hindu, Muslim, Christian and Buddhist and of other religions and faith of the country. Bimal Dey, Dipok Das, Santosh Das were present along with the President of Sree Sree Mahaprovu Mondir.
