

Reading

The area

Situated in the Royal County of Berkshire, Reading and its surrounds offers a wonderfully diverse and vibrant place to live. It is a hub for successful international companies in the heart of the Thames Valley and has one of the highest concentrations of IT firms, confirming its status as Europe's Silicon Valley. It has a fantastic shopping centre 'The Oracle' with many bars and restaurants to choose from.

Nearby

Reading offers something for everyone; from the stunning gardens at Stratfield Saye, Highclere Castle, Cliveden, Stonor Park and Maple Durham House, to children's attractions close by such as Legoland, Beale Park and Bucklebury Farm. For music and festival lovers, the Reading Festival attracts headline acts every August.

Transport

Reading is one of the busiest rail interchanges in Britain and has direct routes to major areas. The £850M Reading Improvement Project has resulted in a spacious new station building, with Cross Rail planned to massively benefit commuting times and services from Dec 2018. Paddington is only 30 mins away, and Heathrow a half an hour drive. It has great road links too being close to the M4, M25, M3 and M40.

Property

Sought after areas include Caversham Heights, Woodley, Earley and Lower Earley where there are many traditional Victorian family homes.
