A WORD FROM DR. STEWART

Happy New Year!

It's a new year, so it is once again time to consider New Year's resolutions. Like many people, you may resolve to lead a healthier lifestyle. But have you considered enhancing your dental health as one of your goals? Good dental health habits not only promote healthy teeth and a beautiful smile, but they contribute to your overall health as well.

Eating a healthy diet is important for maintaining good dental health. Nutrients in fruits, veggies and whole grains strengthen teeth and fight bacteria that cause gum disease. Make it a goal this year to limit your intake of sweets. Sugary food and drinks are your teeth's worst enemy because when sugars are broken down in your mouth, they produce acids that wear away your enamel and cause tooth decay.

If you haven't already, quit using tobacco products! Tobacco use can lead to all kinds of oral health problems, like bad breath, stained teeth, gum disease and oral cancer. Commit to quit in 2020.

You hear this over and over from us here at Smile Savers Dentistry: brush and floss your teeth twice daily. Otherwise plaque can develop on and between teeth causing decay and gum disease. Gum disease can lead to other health problems like heart disease. If your dental hygiene habits are lacking, step up your game this year. And unless we have told you we want to see you more often, make sure you come in every six months. It is truly the best way to ensure a clean bill of dental health.

Smile big in 2020 - let's make it a great year!

In Health,
Dr. Stewart

"A PHENOMENAL GROUP OF DENTAL CARE PROFESSIONALS"

Patient Success Story from Google

"Smile Savers Dentistry is a phenomenal group of dental care professionals, with literally the best customer service and quality care I've ever received. Dr. Stewart and Deanna are like the Shaq and Kobe of dentistry. From the first consultation to the last appointment, they go above and beyond in quality and care. The atmosphere is warm and inviting, almost like visiting family. They take the time to explain everything they're doing to ensure you are comfortable every step of the way. There is zero to very little wait for your appointment to begin, which I believe is part of relieving "white coat" anxiety. Before every appointment, you can expect reminder texts, and you can expect follow-up phone calls the day after each appointment to make sure everything is okay. The quality of the dental care is top notch. Dr. Stewart's expertise shows, from the painless numbing to the speed and quality of his work. It's been almost a week since Dr. Stewart fixed some older dental work and placed a new set of veneers, and it's still hard to recognize myself. I can't stop smiling :-). If you need some major or corrective dental work done, Smile Savers offers a variety of payment options to meet your needs. If you are considering getting some work done, just do it. A week has gone by since my dental work was completed... I can attest that my confidence has never been higher, and that confidence has positively affected every area of my life in a major way. Self-care is one of the highest forms of love you can show to yourself. This may sound like an exaggeration, but investing in your oral health and oral aesthetics is lifechanging. Visit Dr. Stewart and his staff, and see for yourself." —C.B.
