

Rights, choice and risk (also covering the Mental Capacity Act 2005)

This one-day course aims to discuss the importance of enabling a person with dementia or other mental impairment to continue to make choices and decisions even when it involves taking risks. To explore practical ways in which the group can enable clients to continue to make choices.

Learning outcomes

- Explain the importance of enabling a person with dementia to take risks and make choices.
- Describe the impact of dementia on the decision making process.
- Explain how the Mental Capacity Act impacts on people with dementia.

This course can be redesigned and tailored to meet your specific requirements.

To request further information or to discuss your requirements please contact sylvia@beechestraining.co.uk