

OLIVIER CORNET GALLERY

1 The Wooden Building, Exchange Street Upper,
Temple Bar, Dublin 2.

Press Release

'The Flâneur'

The Olivier Cornet Gallery is delighted to present 'The Flâneur', its 2012 Graduate Exhibition curated by Kate Howard, winner of the gallery's Inaugural Visiting Curator Award.

Featuring selected works by recent graduates from DIT, IADT and NCAD 2012, this year's exhibition will provide a unique opportunity for the chosen artists to engage with a wider public in a commercial gallery context.

The exhibition will highlight the variety of output by local emerging practitioners featuring a diverse range of works: from video to paint as well as photography and sculpture. Although always open to interpretation, the title 'The Flâneur' takes its meaning from Charles Baudelaire who developed a derived meaning of the flâneur—that of "a person who walks the city in order to experience it". The works exhibited encapsulate and reflect aspects of identity, heritage, ritual, and social change.

Opening on Wednesday, 11 July 2012, 7 pm

Guest speaker: Anita Groener, visual artist and lecturer in Fine Art at DIT

The exhibition will run from 12 July - 31 August 2012.

Gallery opening hours:

Tuesday - Saturday: 11 am to 6 pm
(till 8 pm on Thursdays)

Sunday: 12 noon to 5 pm

And by appointment. Mondays closed.

For more information, contact us at info@oliviercornetgallery.com

www.oliviercornetgallery.com

T: +353 01 677 0280

M: +353 (0)87 2887261