

OLIVIER CORNET GALLERY

RESURFACING

Wednesday, August 5, 2020 to Thursday, August 27, 2020

A group show curated in collaboration with gallery volunteers
Maïté Moloney and Molliemia Murphy

Following the social restrictions previously imposed by the state, the country is now reopening allowing many of us to go back to work or visit our friends and family again. Taking inspiration from these circumstances, we are 'resurfacing' pre-exhibited work by our artists, allowing us to give them a new lease of life, revisit them and think about our shared experience resurfacing.

The exhibition features work by all our gallery artists, namely Annika Berglund, Hugh Cummins, John Fitzsimons, Jordi Forniés, Conrad Frankel, Claire Halpin, Eoin Mac Lochlainn, Miriam McConnon, Yanny Petters and Kelly Ratchford, as well as work by our Associate Gallery Artists (AGA group members):

Aisling Conroy, Mary A. Fitzgerald, David Fox, Nickie Hayden, Sheila Naughton, Vicky Smith and Susanne Wawra.

Last but not least, the exhibition also features work by Mark Newman, jewellery and metal work graduate, one of the 5 winners of the 2020 RDS Craft Awards.

A special new work by gallery artist Yanny Petters, 'Calla Lily Blue', is also included in the exhibition as part of our celebration of National Heritage Week (15-23 August).

Just a reminder that, during Covid-19, visits to the Olivier Cornet Gallery are by appointment and that face protection is required. Call/text us or email us to let us know what time would suit you. Thank you.
