DESIGN DISTRICT
In the midst of the hustle and bustle of the city, you’ll find this multiplex center for popular restaurants and retail stores, making it one of the city’s main corridors.

HOME DISTRICT
Home to the most recognized names in fashion, Miami’s own Rodeo Drive has become the top destination for those looking for fine cuisine, bespoke design studios and luxury retail.

WYNWOOD
With more art galleries than one can imagine, the richness of this neighborhood lingers for miles across the walls intersecting contemporary boutiques, trendy eateries and hip nightlife.

THE BEACHES
Just a few miles across the causeway to sapphire waters, the cosmopolitan and the casual mysteriously combine in the art deco design of world-renowned restaurants, star-studded nightclubs and other entertainment venues.

DOWNTOWN
The mix of skyscrapers, restaurants, arenas and museums has never been more picturesque. Proving that business and pleasure make for a perfect marriage, Downtown reigns supreme.

ENTERTAINMENT DISTRICT
Infusing the city with its vibrant pulse is this cultural hub that includes the Miami City Ballet, the Florida Grand Opera, the Adrienne Arsht Performing Arts Center and the new Perez Art Museum Miami, all along the waters of Biscayne Bay.
Historically, Miami has been renowned for its stunning beaches, international finance, and non-stop nightlife. Today, however, people from all over the world are choosing Miami as the ultimate destination in which to live in terms of culture, industry, and entertainment. The city has been labeled as the Wall Street of the South for its business and commerce reach into Latin America, the Caribbean, South America, and beyond. With the direct ocean access via Government Cut, the Port of Miami is not only picturesque, but vital to the region and the state. People flock to the city to take part in the festivities and exhibits of Art Basel in December; the Coconut Grove Arts Festival in February; and the Sony Open Tennis Tournament each March on Key Biscayne. Throughout the rest of the year, boat shows, fitness challenges, food and wine festivals, and more attract an audience from dozens of countries. And, with recent additions such as the Arsht Center for the Performing Arts, The Perez Art Museum, the Frost Museum of Science, American Airlines Arena, Mary Brickell Village, and the upcoming high-speed rail service – All Aboard Florida – connecting Miami to other key Florida cities such as Orlando and Tampa, Miami now has the attention of the entire world for its ever-growing diversity, international cuisine, high-end shopping, and world-class entertainment...making Miami synonymous with cosmopolitan city living.

THE DEVELOPER

SAKOR Development, LLC is a partnership of two real estate industry veterans, Barbara Salk and Stephen Kornfeld, each with extensive South Florida experience in a diversity of large ground-up development projects. Their combined development and extensive construction experience span successful careers that bring over 75 years of expertise to their projects. Additionally, they have collaborated on several projects including the land assembly and zoning approvals for Icon Palm Beach (150 unit project in West Palm Beach, FL) and the mechanical and plumbing for City Place South Tower (420 unit project in West Palm Beach, FL).

Barbara Salk, Principal

Ms. Salk brings 25 years of multi-disciplined real estate experience with the last 15 years focused mainly in development, sales and leasing of residential and commercial property. Ms. Salk served as one of The Related Group’s most senior condominium developers in Florida for 11 years and has overseen all disciplines of several residential projects representing over $1 billion in value and 2,000 units. Her comprehensive experience extends from land acquisition and underwriting project transactions to the full life cycle of a condominium or mixed-use project. Her local relationships with contractors and vendors provide invaluable insider, ground-level intelligence and favorable pricing. In 2009 during the market downturn, Ms. Salk led asset management teams in unprecedented condominium closings in two distressed submarkets for two large bank syndicates encompassing 12 lending institutions.

Stephen Kornfeld, Principal

Mr. Kornfeld is the third generation of his family in the construction industry, participating in the development and construction of major projects worldwide, many of which are located in South Florida. He is particularly well known and respected in the Mechanical, Plumbing and Electrical contracting fields having performed work through his companies on some of the largest and complex projects built in recent history. He has a long and successful history in the international construction world as well. He first developed projects in his early twenties in the US Virgin Islands where he conceived and built well over a thousand units of housing for locals under government assisted programs.

Mr. Kornfeld’s MEP companies have completed assignments for some of the largest projects in New York, including The World Financial Center (3 towers, each 2 million sf), IBM World Headquarters, AT&T, Goldman Sachs and General Foods, the 2,000-bed NY Presbyterian Hospital and 2,000-bed addition to the NY Mount Sinai Hospital.

Mr. Kornfeld grew what was a small family business into a conglomerate of specialty companies, which was sold in 2011 to Tutor Perini Corporation.

In 2004, Mr. Kornfeld and partners purchased Nagelbush Mechanical in South Florida. Through his Florida company, Mr. Kornfeld has completed the mechanical and plumbing for over 20 of the major high-rise projects recently built in the Miami area.

Inspiration for building...

The building is a metaphorical map of the unique location of the property. The western portion of the building represents the Miami/Edgewater area and the eastern portion represents Miami Beach. The two areas are joined together by Biscayne Bay flowing between them. As the building is turned upright, the Bay turns into a sensual cascading waterfall and becomes a landmark lighted beacon at night for all to enjoy.
