EDUCATION INTERNSHIP - CURRICULUM AND TRAINING

The PeaceJam Foundation is a global nonprofit organization whose mission is to create a new generation of young leaders committed to positive change in themselves, their communities and the world through the inspiration of Nobel Peace Prize Winners. Since its inception in 1996, more than 1 million youth have participated in PeaceJam programming in over 40 countries.

We are seeking an intern with experience in education and curricular programming to assist in the revision and upkeep of our award-winning youth peace education curriculum, which uses the stories of 14 Nobel Laureates to teach youth about global issues and how they can make a difference.

Start date: January 22, 2019    End date: Flexible

Hours: 8-12 hours/week, depending on need and availability. May work some days remotely once duties are established. Time off may be arranged with two weeks’ notice, and the week before exams will be given off as needed.

Compensation: Intern will receive class credit for successful completion of the internship.

To Apply: Please submit Resume and Cover Letter to info@peacejam.org

Description of Duties

- Review and refresh PeaceJam’s 7 principal curricula for the 2019-20 programming year.
- Assist in updating and innovating our online curriculum training as we transition hosting platforms.
- Assist the Programs Department in the streamlining the educator onboarding process, from inquiry to training to curriculum implementation in the classroom.
- Aid in the process of ‘crowdsourcing’ feedback and additions to the curriculum from our educator stakeholders around the world.
- Opportunity to gain exposure to other areas of global non-profit management as desired, such as event coordination and logistics, communications and social media, by suggestion.
- Opportunity to participate as a volunteer coordinator in the PeaceJam Rocky Mountain Conference with Rigoberta Menchu Tum from March 15-17, 2018
- Assist with other ad hoc tasks as needed to support regional staff.
