“The Dalai Lama – Scientist” to premiere at Venice Film Festival later this month

Source: Buddhistdoor Global

“The Dalai Lama – Scientist,” is set to make its world premiere at the Venice Film Festival at the end of this month.

Described as featuring extensive rare and never-before-seen footage of His Holiness, the film is billed as “telling the very human story of the Dalai Lama that no one knows.”

In the documentary, the Dalai Lama tells his story in his own words of his lifelong journey from the world of Buddhism to the world of modern science, and how the world has changed as a result.

Narrated by actress Laurel Harris (Odd Thomas), “The Dalai Lama – Scientist’ features a number of prominent figures from the worlds of Buddhism and science, including psychologist Paul Ekman, mathematician and geneticist Eric Lander, neuroscientist Christof Koch, and astrophysicist George Greenstein.

Read the story at Buddhistdoor Global.

Receive the day’s documentary news every morning. Sign up for DocumentaryNews Daily.

Related Posts