A year has gone by and just as another spring arrives so too have the beautiful and colorful paintings of Margot Puente with their true originality and where the flowers —her favorite subject—have been reopened to surprise us all with their delicate beauty. The overall results are the simplicity of their forms accompanied by deep passion that goes to the roots of each of her works making us enjoy and dream as if we were still young children. So it was on May 9 when her latest collection was on display at the Casa de Cantabria in Madrid. As is now the custom many football legends attended the event including Francisco Gento, Amancio Amaro, Vicente Miera—all former soccer stars with Real Madrid. Also attending were José Luís Pérez Paya (former President of the Spanish Football Association) and other luminaries such as the Marquesa de San Miguel and Sitege as well as David Müelchi, the Honorary Ethiopian Consul in Spain.

Margot's latest collection was once again highly praised.
