

GEOTECHNICAL PROJECT MANAGER

GNCB Consulting Engineers, P.C. (GNCB) is seeking a Geotechnical Project Manager to manage all budgetary, technical, report preparation, and scheduling aspects of project work.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Manage all aspects of field and laboratory investigations, project design, and construction to exceed client requirements.
- Manage and arrange for site investigations.
- Build and maintain strong client relationships, and be willing to obtain new company business.
- Prepare budgets, proposals, and negotiate contracts.
- Complete all aspects of project work to satisfy technical, budgetary, and scheduling requirements.
- Prepare all written documents, including reports and construction specifications.
- Oversee preparation of design drawings and other report materials.
- Visit sites and monitor construction activities.
- Train in-house staff on geotechnical issues and procedures.
- Serve as expert witness.

Requirements:

- MS degree in geotechnical engineering.

- Must have at least 10 to 15 years experience which demonstrates proficiency in job responsibilities and knowledge of local subsurface conditions.
- Professional registration in Connecticut a must.
- Strong fundamental knowledge of geotechnical engineering, soil and rock mechanics, earthquake engineering, seawall/waterfront work, and groundwater flow.
- Strong computer skills including Autocad/Revit and other industry standard geotechnical software.
- Strong communication and writing skills needed for client and staff interaction
- Supervise and oversee work by others, including and, as well as ability to edit work by others.
- Willingness to travel out of state.

GNCB is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer