Effective September 1, 2020, Milton Magness is retiring and Tina Wehner becomes the new president and executive director of Hope & Freedom Counseling Services. Ms. Wehner has been closely associated with Hope & Freedom since 2012 and follows the treatment model developed by Dr. Magness who says, “Since I first met Tina, I thought she might play a significant role in the future of Hope & Freedom. Now, that becomes a reality.”

Ms. Wehner will continue offering Three-Day Intensives and will be looking to significantly expand the Certified Hope & Freedom Practitioner (CHFP) program by training and certifying outstanding, trained, sex addiction therapists in the Hope & Freedom treatment model.

Ms. Wehner is a Licensed Clinical Mental Health Counselor in North Carolina and also has the designation of supervisor. Additionally, she is a Certified Sex Addiction Therapist (CSAT), and supervisor.

Tina was one of the first CHFPs. She began sending her clients to Houston for Three-Day Intensives. One day, Dr. Magness encouraged her to get training in sex addiction therapy and then accepted her into the CHFP program. Prior to her training as a psychotherapist, Ms. Wehner was in ministry for ten years.

Dr. Magness can still be reached at milton.magness@hopeandfreedom.com. After taking a year off, he will consider doing a few Three-Day Intensives a year and will still divide his time between Houston, Texas and Canmore, Alberta.
