2. Additions to Agenda. Scott motioned to add Allen Hatch recreational building permit to the agenda. Dirk second. All voted in favor.
3. Payment of Bills. Scott questioned the visas for the Extension Office. Scott motioned to accept and pay the bills. Dirk second. All voted in favor.
4. Aging Invoice Report. Dirk will talk to the Eldridge.
5. Tax Forgiveness. Geri Neiderhauser asked the Commissioners to forgive the taxes. The Commissioners stated they have done what they can do and will leave the taxes as they are.
6. Noise Ordinance. Vic read the Noise Ordinance. Comments from Don Meek and Randy Meek stated music is being played 12 hours a day 7 days a week and it is affecting their lives. Cannot have their windows open at night because of the noise. The music can be heard inside their homes even when the windows are closed and tv is on. Don and Randy stated they wanted the ordinance to be stricter.

The following suggestions were made:

- A. to have the music be shut down at 10:00 on the weekdays and 12:00 midnight on the Friday and Saturday.
- B. to have a sound level meter or decibel reader.
- C. have a permit process for exemptions to the ordinance.

Dirk tabled the noise ordinance to further study the decibel readers and gather more information from the Sheriff's Office. It will be on the August 25 agenda.

John also stated that in the Development Code that no noise louder than 80 decibels outside of the property line.

7. Recreation Building Permit. Dirk asked John Burg if there is a 100' by 100' limitation on recreational homes. John stated there is no limit on size of building in the County. John told the Commissioners the Planning and Zoning will be discussing building on un-maintained County roads.
The Commissioners asked John to advertise for the cleaning positions.
