

Journeyman Electrician Job Description

Parkway is looking for Journeyman Electricians to join our team. You will install, repair, and maintain a variety of electrical systems, including electrical panels, lighting, motor controls, and conveyor systems alongside our highly skilled team. Our ideal candidate has professional experience, great customer service, a current Michigan's Journeyman license, and a flexible schedule.

Our Journeyman Electricians work at commercial, Industrial, and institutional locations. You should have solid skills in troubleshooting and a good knowledge of proper safety procedures. We provide great benefits and offer a steady work schedule. Some weekend and evening hours are required.

We reward hard work and safety through incentive programs. If you enjoy working in a team environment where your contributions are valued, then Parkway is the place to build into your career.

Primary Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Maintains compliance with all OSHA, customer safety requirements and company policies.
- Works without direct supervision, provide teaching, and mentoring to apprentices learning the trade.
- Install, maintain, and troubleshoot electrical systems in compliance with the current National Electric Code.
- Bend and install conduit, pull wire, install lighting and basic control systems. Install motor feeders and makes standard motor connections.
- Identify, correct, and report any unsafe acts, conditions, or incidents.
- Responsible for the compiling and completing of a variety of paperwork required for a particular job.
- Maintain inventory records of materials used and job performance logs.

Key Qualifications:

- High school diploma or GED
- Have and maintain an up-to-date Michigan Journeyman's license
- Able to read and following blueprints and electrical schematics
- Capability of leading and being led by others
- Comprehensive knowledge of the most recent National Electrical Code
- Focus on safety, quality, customer service
- Operate with honesty and integrity
- Self-driven, reliable and able to work independently
- Comfortably work at elevated heights, and to lift up to 50 lbs. as needed
- Strong teamwork and collaboration with peers and leaders
- Possess a valid driver license with no drug or alcohol related incidences with in the last 5 years
- Must have your own set of hand tools