

Giving Hope Today

CLIENT'S RIGHTS

You have the right to be heard

You have the right to speak without being judged

You have the right to our services without discrimination

You have the right to voice your concerns

You have the right to confidentiality

You have the right to privacy

You have the right to referrals and information

You have the right to repeat access to our services

You have the right to be supported regardless of your circumstance

You have the right to never be alone

OUR COMMITMENT

We value you and are committed to providing assistance and support

We are dedicated to navigating you through your personal crisis

We will provide support services and options that will restore HOPE