

The Cicely Saunders Annual Lecture

Wednesday 4 May 2016, 16.45-18.30

Unintended consequences of 'end of life' legislation

Baroness Finlay of Llandaff

Ilora Finlay is a Professor of Palliative Medicine at Cardiff University; Consultant at Velindre Cancer Centre; and Independent Crossbench member of the House of Lords. The first consultant in Palliative Medicine in Wales in 1987, she developed palliative and hospice care services across Wales and established an internationally renowned palliative care course at Cardiff University. She is National Vice President of Marie Curie Cancer Care and Chair of the National Council for Palliative Care.

The Lecture is being screened in three venues on the Island of Ireland:

DUBLIN - AIIHPC and Our Lady's Hospice and Care Services are hosting a screening in the Education and Research Centre, Our Lady's Hospice and Care Services, Harold's Cross, Dublin 6W. To book a place please RSVP with name, organisation and email address to Bernadette Pirihi to bpirihi@aiahpc.org or Tel: 01 4912948

CORK – Marymount University Hospital and Hospice is hosting a screening in Marymount University Hospital and Hospice, Curraheen, Co Cork. To book a place please RSVP with name, organisation and email address to Aoife O'Connor to aconnor@marymount.ie or 021 4390805

BELFAST - Northern Ireland Hospice is hosting a screening in Northern Ireland Hospice, Jennymount Business Park, North Derby Street, Belfast. To book a place please RSVP with name, organisation and email address to Nuala Connolly or Claire Armstrong to Nuala.Connolly@nihospice.org / Claire.Armstrong@nihospice.org or Tel: 028 90781836

