

As our name suggests, we intend to be upfront and clear regarding our service, and our fees are no different.

We charge on a per item basis, rather than by time taken or value assessed. This ensures there is no bias to increasing the fees charged.

It also means you will know exactly how much your valuation will cost you before it is undertaken. There are no hidden charges – everything is included.

Upon your initial enquiry, we will discuss the items you are looking to have valued, and provide you with a free estimate for our services. If you choose us to undertake your valuation, your estimate will be confirmed upon initial observation of the items, ensuring you are happy to continue.

Insurance

- Document Fee £60.00

This covers the cost of producing all aspects of the document

- Each Jewellery item and standard Watches £50.00
- Diamonds over 1 Carat £75.00 per Carat

Diamonds over 1 Carat require further research

- Grouped Headings for Nominal Items £60.00

Nominal items are those which are under your Insurance threshold, but still benefit from being listed. Maximum of six items

- Exceptional Items £75.00 – £100.00

These are specialist items that require extensive research to price. This fee will be discussed further at initial inspection

Example:

If you are looking to have a diamond solitaire ring of 0.80 Carats and a standard Rolex Watch valued for Insurance, our fee will be:

£60.00 Document Fee

£50.00 Jewellery Item

£50.00 Standard Watch

Total = £160.00

Re-evaluation

If you require an updated valuation (re-valuation), of an item which we have previously valued in the last five years, we offer a reduced fee:

Document Fee £60.00, plus £15.00 per item

Private Sale, Capital Gains Tax, Probate, Family Division, Post Loss Assessment

These types of valuation may involve large numbers of low value items, which can potentially be grouped into 'lots'. For an estimate for these types of valuation, please contact us to discuss further.
