PARISH BUSINESS

News from the P.I.T. – Priest in Training

When I joined FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students) as a missionary, I thought I had an idea of what my ministry on college campuses would entail. I thought I would be investing in Catholic leaders, teaching them how to share their faith as I was taught. However, at my first night of training, I was told of a more radical call to my job. I was going to be leading the charge as a missionary talking to strangers about the faith on college campuses! My job would ask me consistently to leave the comfort of my ego and pride, and put myself in a place of constant rejection and ridicule. After hearing this on my first night of training, I could only ask the question, “What did I get myself into?”

In our Gospel today, the Lord not only explains the cost of discipleships, which is everything, but then asks his disciples, “Do you understand all these things?” Their response is quite naïve, “Yes!” It is clear in the Scriptures, the Apostles did not know what they signed up for, especially when it came to Christ dying on the cross. Yet, in the end, all but one would be killed for their faith in Jesus Christ!

The Lord is asking us to follow him! Deep in our hearts we want to say yes! And we don’t know what that yes will entail, but the great news revealed in the Scripture: God doesn’t call the equipped, He equips the called! The Lord gave the Apostles the grace to follow Him even to their martyrdom! The Lord gave me the grace to be His missionary and now His priest. The Lord will give you His grace to follow him, you just need to say yes, and see the Lord do amazing things!

Fr. Michael Kearney

CCW Corner

Helping Needy Schoolkids in DuPage County

It's that time of year ... new shoes, new supplies, health exams, etc. Now imagine doing that all on a very limited income.

That's reality for plenty of families in DuPage County—our neighbors.

Fortunately, Catholic Charities/Joliet Diocese hosts a Back-to-School Fair to help children from low-income households in DuPage get ready for the new school year. The fair will be held on August 2 at St. Francis High School in Wheaton. Families will be able to get free school supplies, haircuts and more.

To help Catholic Charities purchase supplies, Visitation's Council of Catholic Women (CCW) will be taking up a collection at the church exits after masses this weekend, July 22-23.

As you leave, please make a contribution to this worthy cause. And thank you for helping local children get off to a good start in the upcoming school year.
