

MORAGA REAL ESTATE

Moraga

Moraga is an affluent suburban incorporated town in Contra Costa County. Developed by ranchers that first settled the area, Moraga has held onto its peaceful rural feel. With lush rolling hills and a quaint hometown vibe, Moraga's real estate and roads were all built post 1960, while vineyards now speckle the landscape once rich in farming soil. Moraga has a charming summer Jazz Banjo Festival at St. Mary's College and hosts its own Community Faire every May with classic car shows, live music and wine tasting from its local vineyards. Nature is abundant in Moraga, and the town prides itself on preserving its natural beauty and landscapes, making it a much sought after residential haven.
