

He Never Expresses Regret

The child will never recover
From you
But life goes on Doesn't it

Even though
They shoot horses
Don't they
Life endures
In a manner
That is hard
To label

You have destroyed
What she believed in
You have policed her life
And the lives
Of others

You tell untruths
Fabricate
Deflect
Blame
Retract and restate

You require
Complete allegiance
While most
Never believed
Or were all deceived

You typify a
Borderline Personality
Not so complicated
After all
Just malevolent
Immoral
And self-absorbed
A true narcissist

You have devastated
What she once
Had faith in
You have regulated her vitality
Tarnished her convictions
Unfastened her life
And the lives
Of others

And you never
Express regret
Or shame
