Island Transit offers employees an excellent comprehensive benefits package, pension plan, and more. Depending on your employment status, you could be eligible for the benefits below. (The provisions of this benefit summary do not constitute an expressed or implied contract.)

Medical/Dental Insurance
Full-Time status eligibility begins on the first day of the month following date of hire, or completion of training for employees and eligible dependents (spouse, significant other and children) through Kaiser Permanente medical and MetLife dental. Part-Time employees working 20 hours per week or more are eligible for employee only coverage.

The monthly premium contribution is shared between Island Transit and the employee depending upon the selected plan. Health insurance premiums are pre-tax payroll deductions.

Life Insurance
Island Transit provides $12,000 basic life insurance coverage provided through Washington Counties Insurance Fund (WCIF). Additional supplemental life and AD&D insurance can be purchased by employees through payroll deduction.

Optional accident, disability, intensive care and cancer insurance is available through AFLAC by payroll deduction.

Employees may participate in a Flexible health care/dependent care reimbursement account.

Employee Assistance Program (EAP)
Island Transit provides an Employee Assistance Program for all employees. Initial assessment and referral services are provided at no cost to the employee.

Job-Related Travel and Training Opportunities
Island Transit pays expenses for authorized job-related travel, transportation, meals, accommodation and other job-related travel and training expenses.

Retirement Plan through the Washington State Public Employees’ Retirement System (PERS)
Employee and employer contributions are required at start of employment.

457 Deferred Compensation Plan
Island Transit offers a deferred compensation plan through ICMA and will match up to 6.2% of the employee contribution. Employee contributions are not subject to federal income tax until withdrawn. Eligibility begins the first day of the month following date of hire, or completion of training.
Paid Vacation and Holidays
Employees accrue 12 to 24 vacation days per year determined by date of eligibility and length of service. The maximum accrual limit is 240 hours. Employees accrue up to 12 days of sick leave per year depending upon date of eligibility. Employees leaving employment may be eligible to receive compensation for unused sick leave determined by length of service.

Employees receive 11 paid holidays (6 observed holidays include: New Year’s Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day and 5 floating holidays) per year depending upon date of eligibility.

Up to 5 days of paid bereavement leave determined by employment status.

Medicare Insurance
Employees and Island Transit share the cost (currently 1.45% for each) of the federal hospital insurance tax (Medicare).
IMPORTANT NOTE: Island Transit employees do not contribute to Social Security

Worker’s Compensation Insurance
Employees are covered under the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries Industrial Insurance Program for job-related accidents, illness and disease.
