DEATH BENEFITS AVAILABLE TO THE SURVIVING FAMILIES
OF LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS WHO HAVE DIED IN THE LINE OF DUTY

STATE DEATH BENEFITS
Beginning July, 2009, there is a state death benefit paid for the line-of-duty death of any certified peace officer, detention officer, or correctional officer in the employ of the state or a political subdivision of the state.

The sum of $100,000 will be disbursed to a surviving spouse, with or without dependent children. In the event there is no surviving spouse, the sum of $100,000 will be disbursed evenly to surviving dependent children under the age of 21. In the event there is neither a surviving spouse nor surviving dependent children under the age of 21, the sum of $40,000 will be disbursed to the surviving parent or parents of the slain officer, to be split equally between the natural or adopted parents of the slain officer.

The death benefit provided in this section shall not be subject to state income taxes, and shall not affect, nor be affected by, any death benefit payments as may be provided under Chapter 13, Title 59, Idaho code.

This benefit is paid through the Public Employee Retirement System of Idaho (PERSI). Call (800) 451-8228 or visit https://persi.idaho.gov/ for more information.

EDUCATION BENEFITS
The Armed Forces and Public Safety Officer Scholarship provides a waiver of tuition and fees plus up to $500 per semester for books in addition to on-campus housing and subsistence to Idaho undergraduate students who are the children or spouses of military members or public safety officers killed in the line of duty. See https://boardofed.idaho.gov/scholarships/armed-forces-public-safety-officer-dependent-scholarship/ or call (208) 332-1595 for more information or to apply.

The PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICERS' EDUCATION ASSISTANCE (PSOEA) Program provides financial assistance, for the purpose of seeking higher education, to the spouses and eligible children of local police, fire, and emergency public safety officers who have been killed or permanently disabled in the line of duty.

Educational assistance through the PSOEA Program is available after the Public Safety Officers' Benefit (PSOB) death or disability claim process has been completed and benefits have been awarded.

Visit https://psob.bja.ojp.gov/ for more information and the application or call the PSOB Office toll-free at 1-888-744-6513 to discuss the requirements for receiving PSOEA benefits.

KIDS CHANCE OF IDAHO - To be eligible for a scholarship grant, applicants must have a parent who has been killed or seriously injured as a result of a work related incident that meets the criteria of the Idaho Workers’ Compensation Act and that has resulted in demonstrated financial need. Applicants must be between the ages of 16-25.

Visit https://kidschanceofidaho.org/ for more information or to apply.

HEALTH INSURANCE BENEFITS

Health benefits vary depending upon police department benefits. Spouses of state and county officers may elect to continue to participate in the same benefit program in effect at the time of the officer's death. Contact the Benefits Coordinator at your agency.

WORKERS’ COMPENSATION

Weekly benefit due surviving spouse at 45% ASW, not to exceed 500 weeks. If spouse remarries, he/she is due a lump sum in an amount equal to the lesser of 100 weeks or the total benefit for the balance of the 500 week period at 45% of the current ASW.

Weekly benefit due surviving dependent spouse, if there are dependent children: an additional 5% ASW per child, until age 18, and if incapable of self-support after age 18, may be eligible for additional benefits. After the age of 18, if the child is enrolled as a full-time student in any accredited educational institution, or accredited vocational training program, weekly benefits are payable until such child ceases to be enrolled, or the child turns 23, whichever occurs first. If no dependent surviving spouse, but child (ren): 30% ASW for 1 child and 10% ASW for each additional child to and including a total of 3 additional children - not to exceed 60% ASW total weekly benefit.
In certain circumstances, parents, siblings, grandparents, and grandchildren may be eligible for benefits, if they are dependent upon the deceased.

If you have any questions about benefits, call (208) 334-6000 or 1-800-950-2110, or visit https://iic.idaho.gov/benefits-administration/injured-worker-information/.
