HEALTH INSURANCE BENEFITS

An employer who employs a full-time law enforcement, correctional or correctional probation officer, or firefighter, who suffers a catastrophic injury or is killed in the line of duty shall pay the entire premium of the employer's health insurance plan for the injured employee, the injured employee's spouse, and for each dependent child of the injured employee until the child reaches the age of majority or until the end of the calendar year in which the child reaches the age of 25 if the child continues to be dependent for support or the child is a full-time or part-time student and is dependent for support. The employer shall continue to pay the entire health insurance premium for the surviving spouse until remarried. The term "health insurance plan" does not include supplemental benefits that are not part of the basic group health insurance plan.

In order for the law enforcement, correctional or correctional probation officer, firefighter, spouse, or dependent children to be eligible for insurance coverage, the injury or death must have occurred as the result of the officer's response to fresh pursuit, the officer or firefighter's response to what is reasonably believed to be an emergency, an unlawful act perpetrated by another, or during the investigation of a criminal act. Talk to Human Resources in your department for more information.

WORKERS’ COMPENSATION

The benefit is two-thirds (66 2/3%) of the employee’s gross average weekly wage during the 52 weeks before the injury, subject to minimum and maximum limits. The minimums and maximums for the survivors’ benefit are available in Commission offices and online at https://www2.illinois.gov/sites/iwcc/resources/Pages/benefits.aspx.
The primary beneficiaries of the survivors' benefit are the spouse and children under the age of 18. If no primary beneficiaries exist, benefits may be paid to totally dependent parents. If no totally dependent parents exist, benefits may be paid to persons who were at least 50% dependent on the employee at the time of death.

If the surviving spouse remarries, benefits will continue if there are eligible children. If there are no eligible children at the time of remarriage, the spouse is entitled to a final lump sum payment equal to two years of compensation. All rights to further benefits are extinguished. If a case is decided by an arbitrator, recipients of the survivors' benefit will be entitled to cost-of-living adjustments. Beginning on the second July 15th after the award became final, the recipient will receive an amount from the Commission’s Rate Adjustment Fund that reflects the increase in the statewide average weekly wage during the preceding year. These payments are made monthly.
