State Death Benefits

The killed in the line of duty benefit shall be a one time payment of $300,000 to the family of a deceased public safety employee who, while in the performance of his duties and as a result of incident, accident or violence, was killed or sustained injuries which were the direct and proximate cause of his death. This benefit is non taxable by the commonwealth. The word “family” shall mean the surviving spouse of such deceased public safety employee or, if there is no surviving spouse, the child or children of such deceased public safety employee or, if there is no surviving child, the parent of such deceased public safety employee.

Education Benefits

Public Service Grant Program Established for students who have experienced the loss of a parent and/or spouse who is killed or missing in the line of public service duty in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

An eligible institution is defined as a public or independent college or university in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts which is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges and is authorized by the Commonwealth to offer undergraduate degree programs.

For a student attending a Massachusetts public college or university, the award shall be equal to the cost of the institution’s fulltime annual tuition charges. For a student attending a Massachusetts Independent College or University, the award shall be equal to the fulltime annual tuition charge at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. For more information or to apply, call the Massachusetts Department of higher education Office of Student Financial Assistance at (617) 391-6070 or visit https://www.mass.edu/osfa/programs/publicservice.asp.

Concerns of Police Survivors – provides financial assistance of up to $1,500 per semester to surviving children and surviving spouses of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty, according to C.O.P.S. criteria, who wish to pursue a course of study beyond high school. Since there is a tuition-free education benefit available in your state, you must first apply for and be denied by the state or the institution to be eligible for the C.O.P.S. scholarship.

The PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICERS' EDUCATION ASSISTANCE (PSOEA) Program provides financial assistance, for the purpose of seeking higher education, to the spouses and eligible children of local police, fire, and emergency public safety officers who have been killed or permanently disabled in the line of duty.

Educational assistance through the PSOEA Program is available after the Public Safety Officers' Benefit (PSOB) death or disability claim process has been completed and benefits have been awarded.

Visit https://psob.bja.ojp.gov/ for more information and the application or call the PSOB Office toll-free at 1-888-744-6513 to discuss the requirements for receiving PSOEA benefits.

KIDS CHANCE OF MASSACHUSETTS - To be eligible for a scholarship grant, applicants must have a parent who has been killed or seriously injured as a result of a work related incident that meets the criteria of the Massachusetts Workers’ Compensation Act and that has resulted in demonstrated financial need.

For more information or to apply, visit https://www.kidschanceofma.org/

WORKERS’ COMPENSATION

The spouse (not remarried) receives 2/3 of the officer’s average weekly wages, but not more than the average weekly wage in the commonwealth and not less than $150 per week. If the officer has children from a previous marriage, the benefit is split equally among the current spouse and those children. If the spouse remarries, the children will continue to receive $60 per week while still dependents.

For additional benefits, information or to apply visit the Department of Industrial Accidents at https://www.mass.gov/orgs/department-of-industrial-accidents or call (617) 727-4900

PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICERS’ BENEFITS (PSOB) PROGRAM

A unique effort of the U.S. Department of Justice; local, state, tribal, and federal public safety agencies; and national organizations, the Public Safety Officers' Benefits (PSOB) Program provides death and education benefits to survivors of fallen law enforcement officers, firefighters, and other first responders, and disability benefits to officers catastrophically injured in the line of duty.

The claim has two parts (A&B) that require the agency and family to fill out online. Visit https://psob.bja.ojp.gov/ for additional filing information. If you need assistance filing this claim, contact the National C.O.P.S. office at (573) 346-4911 or cops@nationalcops.org.
