Currently there is no one time death benefit in North Dakota.

STATE DEATH BENEFITS

EDUCATION BENEFITS

North Dakota Century Code 15-10-18.5

Free tuition is available in North Dakota institutions of higher education for surviving children of peace officers and fire fighters. To be eligible, the child must be age 21 or younger at the time of the death. Should a peace officer or fire fighter die as a direct result of injuries received in performance of official duties, the survivor, upon being duly accepted for enrollment into any North Dakota state-supported university, college, or technical or vocational school, must be allowed to obtain a bachelor’s degree, or certificate of completion, for so long as the survivor is eligible, free of any tuition and fee charges, except those charged to retire outstanding bonds; provided, however, that the bachelor’s degree or certificate of completion is earned within a thirty-six month or eight semester period or its equivalent; and further provided that tuition and fee charges may not include costs for aviation flight charges or expenses.

Visit the North Dakota University System website at https://ndus.edu/paying-for-college/paying-for-college-ndopportunities/ for details.

CONCERNS OF POLICE SURVIVORS – provides financial assistance of up to $1,500 per semester to surviving children and surviving spouses of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty, according to C.O.P.S. criteria, who wish to pursue a course of study beyond high school. Since there is a tuition-free education benefit available in your state, you must first apply for and be denied by the state or the institution to be eligible for the C.O.P.S. scholarship.

The Public Safety Officers’ Education Assistance (PSOEA) Program provides financial assistance, for the purpose of seeking higher education, to the spouses and eligible children of local police, fire, and emergency public safety officers who have been killed or permanently disabled in the line of duty.

Educational assistance through the PSOEA Program is available after the Public Safety Officers’ Benefit (PSOB) death or disability claim process has been completed and benefits have been awarded. Call (888) 744-6513 or visit https://psob.bja.ojp.gov/benefits/ or more information.
KIDS CHANCE - To be eligible for a scholarship grant, applicants must have a parent who has been killed or seriously injured as a result of a work related incident that meets the criteria of the Workers' Compensation Act and that has resulted in demonstrated financial need. Applicants must be under 25 years of age.

For more information or to apply, visit https://www.kidschance.org/

WORKERS’ COMPENSATION

The eligible spouse or guardian of the dependent(s) of the deceased worker, may receive benefits at a rate of 2/3s of a deceased worker’s weekly wage, up to 125% of the state's average weekly wage and up to $15 each week for each dependent child. Surviving spouse receives a one-time first death award of $2,500, plus $800 for each dependent child. Total death benefits including supplemental benefits may not exceed $300,000 over the lifetime of a claim. WSI pays all medical bills directly related to the compensable injury and death of a worker.

If the worker is not survived by a spouse or dependent(s), WSI will pay a lump sum of $15,000 in equal parts to any surviving non-dependent children. If the worker is not survived by non-dependent children, the $15,000 will be paid in equal shares to the worker’s surviving parents. If there are no surviving parents, this sum will be paid in equal shares to surviving brothers and sisters. If there are no living brothers or sisters, the $15,000 will be paid in equal shares to surviving grandparents.

Scholarships are available for spouses and dependents who have received death benefits.

Claims must be filed within 2 years of death. For more information or to request forms, contact North Dakota Workforce Safety & Insurance by calling (800) 777-5033 or visit https://www.workforcesafety.com/workers/benefits-services/death-benefits.

PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICERS’ BENEFITS (PSOB) PROGRAM

A unique effort of the U.S. Department of Justice; local, state, tribal, and federal public safety agencies; and national organizations, the Public Safety Officers' Benefits (PSOB) Program provides death and education benefits to survivors of fallen law enforcement officers, firefighters, and other first responders, and disability benefits to officers catastrophically injured in the line of duty.

The claim has two parts (A&B) that require the agency and family to fill out online. Visit psob.gov for additional filing information.

If you need assistance filing this claim, contact the National C.O.P.S. office at (573) 346-4911 or cops@nationalcops.org
