22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." - Mt 16:24b-25

WORSHIP AID FOR AUGUST 29-30

OPENING HYMN – LIFT HIGH THE CROSS

Lift High the Cross, the love of Christ proclaim Till all the world adore his sacred name.

Come, Christians, follow, where our Savior trod,
Our King victorious, Christ, the Son of God. (Lift high...)

Led on their way by this triumphant sign,
The hosts of God in conquering ranks combine. (Lift high...)

Text: 1 Cor. 1:18; George W. Kitchin and Michael R. Newbolt. Tune: CRUCIFER with refried. Sydney H. Nicholson. © 1974, 1987, Hope Publishing Company.

PENITENTIAL ACT B:

Priest: Have mercy on us, O Lord.
People: For we have sinned against you.
Priest: Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
People: And grant us your salvation.

GLORIA (sung)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

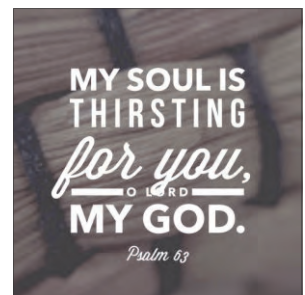

Lord, Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – PSALM 63

WORSHIP AID FOR AUGUST 29-30

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

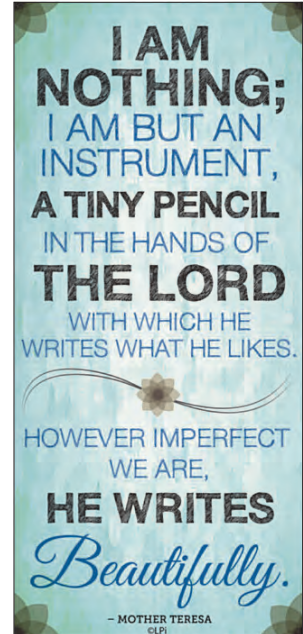

(All bow at the following words through "and became man.")

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the father and the Son,
who with the father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of His name, for our good and the good of all His holy Church.

SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

*Please remain at your seat to receive Holy Communion.
The ministers will come to you through the empty row in front of you.
As the minister approaches, please stand if you are able and remove your mask.
You are asked to please receive Holy Communion in the hand.
After receiving Communion, you may kneel or be seated and replace your mask.*

WORSHIP AID FOR AUGUST 29-30

COMMUNION HYMN — BLEST ARE THEY

Blest are they, the poor in spirit, theirs is the kingdom of God.
Blest are they, full of sorrow, they shall be consoled.

*Rejoice and be glad! Blessed are you, holy are you!
Rejoice and be glad! Yours is the kingdom of God!*

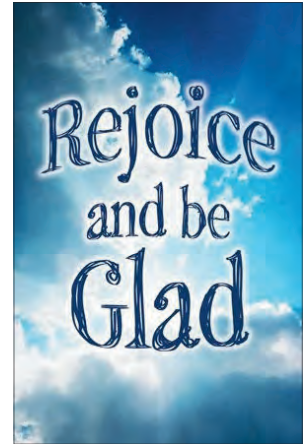

Blest are they, the lowly ones, they shall inherit the earth.
Blest are they who hunger and thirst, they shall have their fill. (Rejoice...)

Blest are they who show mercy, mercy shall be theirs.
Blest are they, the pure of heart, they shall see God! (Rejoice...)

Blest are they who seek peace; they are the children of God.
Blest are they who suffer in faith, the glory of God is theirs. (Rejoice...)

Blest are you who suffer hate, all because of me.
Rejoice and be glad, yours is the kingdom; shine for all to see. (Rejoice...)

Text: Matthew 5:3-12; David Haas, b. 1957, © 1985, GIA Publications, Inc.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN — LIFT HIGH THE CROSS

*Lift High the Cross, the love of Christ proclaim
Till all the world adore his sacred name.*

Each newborn servant of the Crucified
Bears on the brow the seal of him who died. (Lift high...)

O Lord, once lifted on the glorious tree,
Your death has brought us life eternally. (Lift high...)

PARISH NEWS

Dear Parishioners,

There is much to learn from studying the Desert Fathers. They are rich in spirituality. For example, one day one of the Desert Fathers told a story about his experience about going out into the desert.

On a trip into a nearby village for supplies, the young hermit saw a man with only one leg going by. Then he saw a mother begging for food for her starving child. Finally, he saw a man who had been a victim of a severe beating.

Seeing these unfortunate people parading before him, the monk turned to God in prayer and asked, “Oh, Great Lord, how can you, such a loving and merciful God, see so much suffering and do nothing about it?” A few minutes later the holy monk heard God’s voice deep in his heart. “I have done something about it — I made sure that you saw them! Now, what will you do in response to their suffering?”

Have a great week!

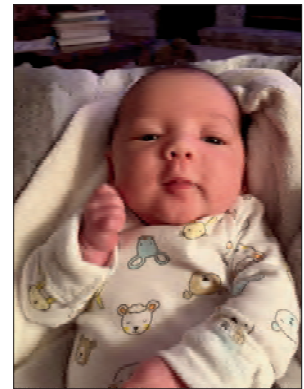

*Love,
Fr. Bill*

Becoming Catholic RCIA Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

RCIA Sessions this Fall

Are You Interested in the Catholic Faith?

We will soon begin a new journey in faith to share the richness of the Catholic Church and our parish family. You are invited to learn what the Church teaches and be introduced to some of our parish members. These sessions are also opportunities for you to ask those perplexing questions you may have about the Church. These gatherings are for adults who have never been baptized; Christians who seek to join the Catholic Church; or Catholics who never received Confirmation or Eucharist. Sessions will be adapted according to the COVID-19 guidelines. Sessions are Wednesdays, at 7:00 p.m. To discuss your questions and learn about the process this year, call Suzanne Marciniak at 419-475-4348, ext. 109, or e-mail smarciniak@cktoledo.org.

Infant Baptism Preparation Infants remind us of the Miracle of Life and the tremendous Gift God gives us. As a community we offer parents our support and prayers for their families. We live our faith with the hope that new parents will pass on our Faith to the next generation.

First Time Parents — Due to the COVID-19 health situation, in lieu of our regular New Parent Morning of Prayer and Reflection, Christ the King is offering a remote Baptismal Preparation Course through Ascension Press. For more or to register, call Amanda Huffman at 419-475-4348, ext. 115, or e-mail ahuffman@cktoledo.org.

Check us out on Facebook at Christ the King Toledo or Christ the King School Toledo.

LIVE Our Masses are live-streamed at cktoledo.org

Galatians Bible Study by Jeff Cavins will be hosted on Friday mornings at 8:30 a.m. beginning on September 11, or Monday evenings at 7:00 p.m. beginning on September 14. Both sessions will be in our Parish Center Meeting Room. Due to social distancing, the class size is very limited. There is also an independent study, online version available — including Zoom discussion sessions. In this eight-part Bible Study, you will find an answer to the question, “What must we do to be saved?” Paul’s letter to the Galatians provides the answer and reveals the love God has for his children. To register and order materials, contact Amanda Huffman at 419-475-4348, ext. 115, or e-mail her at ahuffman@cktoledo.org. Registration deadline is this Friday, September 4. Space is limited!

A Day of Fasting and Prayer for Healing Wounds of Racism to Promote the Human Dignity of Every Person is this Tuesday, September 1. Join Bishop Daniel Thomas and all the faithful of the Diocese of Toledo to spend the day in prayer and fasting for the intention of an end to the sin of racism. Bishop Thomas will celebrate a Eucharistic Holy Hour at 7:00 p.m. at St. Thomas More University Parish (425 Thurstin Avenue, Bowling Green). If you are unable to attend, please join us in prayer from wherever you are. For more, e-mail Peter Range, Office for Life and Justice, at prange@toledodiocese.org or call him at 419-214-4933.

Youth Group News — “Do not be afraid” Did you know there are 365 times in which God encourages us to be unafraid in the Bible? Jesus Himself said it several times. As you are all getting started in your respective schools during these next few weeks — either in person or remotely — we pray that you are not afraid. Never forget that God is always with us — welcoming us to turn to Him in prayer.

Youth Group is hosting a Zoom Rosary every Sunday at 4:00 p.m. To get the login code, e-mail Mrs.

Cindy Roberts at croberts@cktoledo.org. All are welcome to pray with us. If you would like a Christ the King face mask, e-mail her as well. Follow Youth Group on Instagram at ChristKingYouthGroup. Our CK Youth Group is open to all students (even if not parishioners) and parishioners in grades five through college.

Parish Nurse Tip of the Week Prevention 101

Vaccines don’t just protect people getting vaccinated; they protect everyone around them too. Most insurance companies provide coverage for vaccines. Many at no cost or co-pay. Researchers now see that the falling immunization rate is creating a resurgence of vaccine-preventable diseases. According to www.publichealthmyths.com, there are several myths that persist...

- Vaccines cause autism — A study done in 1997 by a British surgeon, Andrew Wakefield, suggested that the measles, mumps, rubella (MMR) vaccine was causing an upsurge of autism. Although the paper was discredited and several other major studies done showed no link between any vaccine and autism. Continued studies have found that autism develops in utero, well before the baby is born.
- Infant immune systems can’t handle so many vaccines — Babies are exposed to countless bacteria and viruses every day. Any immunizations are negligible in comparison. Small children are exposed to fewer immunologic components overall than children in past decades.
- Natural immunity is better than vaccine-acquired immunity — Natural immunity means catching a disease and getting sick. The dangers of this far outweigh the benefits. By contracting the measles, you would face a 1 in 500 chance of death from your symptoms. In contrast, the number of people who have had severe allergic reactions from an MMR vaccine is less than one in one million.
- Vaccines contain unsafe toxins — The concern over the use of formaldehyde, mercury, or aluminum in vaccines are used only in trace amounts and are FDA-approved. According to the FDA and CDC, formaldehyde is produced at higher rates by our own metabolic systems, and there is no scientific evidence that low levels of this chemical or the others can be harmful.

Vaccines are one of the great pillars of modern medicine. Life use to be especially brutal for children before vaccines, with huge portions of childhood deaths due to diseases like measles, smallpox, whooping cough, or rubella — to name just a few. Today these sicknesses can be completely prevented with a simple injection. Vaccines continue to protect us from potentially devastating forms of infectious diseases.

2020-2021 Religious Education Registration

Last March our Religious Education Program came to a quick halt due to the pandemic. It left our students missing their religious education. As you know, school districts around our area have been preparing for in-person, distance learning, and some adopting a hybrid model. In preparing for this year, one of our key concerns was trying to provide a consistent religious education model, especially since we simply do not know what the coming months will bring. We hope and pray for good things.

Because of these challenges, we have researched online, home-based programs for Religious Education. We feel this is going to be the best option this year for our families given the uncertainty of the next few months. The program we have chosen is called Family Formation.

Our first Sunday will be October 6, and it will be a virtual experience via Zoom. Instructions will be given for the lessons for October to be completed by your family over the next three weeks. While we know this may present challenges for some families, we feel this is going to be the best solution this year for our students to receive a consistent religious education.

There are two Information Nights about this program — Sunday, September 20, and Wednesday, September 23. Both begin at 7:00 p.m. in the Basil Goes Activities Building and will last no longer than one hour. Please use the link below to sign up for which session you can attend. If neither work, please let Sandi Trabbic know as soon as possible. The program fee is $85 per family (not per child) payable by check at your information night.

To preview the program, visit

We look forward to an exciting year of trying something new, and appreciate your patience and cooperation. For more information, e-mail Sandi Trabbic, Catechetical Leader, at strabbic@cktoledo.org or call her at 419-475-4348, ext. 131.

COMMUNITY NEWS

National Day of Remembrance of Aborted Children is on Saturday, September 12. A Solemn Prayer Service, sponsored by Respect Life Ministry of Sylvania St. Joe's, will be held at the Sisters of St. Francis Campus.

Join in their prayerful procession to their Memorial for Innocent Children of Abortion. Meet after their 4:30 p.m. Mass at St. Joseph on Saturday, September 12. In the event of rain, the service will be conducted in the Church. A Knights of Columbus Honor Guard will lead the procession. Music will be provided by the Con Brio Choir.

Refreshments will be served following the service. For more information, call Sue Jurski at 419-350-8161.

Grief: The Path to Personal & National Transformation

This Oasis Day Virtual/Zoom Mini-Retreat is on Saturday, September 12, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. In the midst of a pandemic that has claimed so many lives and livelihoods and uncovered so much injustice, we pause to face our individual and communal grief and to find the light that can lead us forward. This Oasis Day will be led by Sr. Edna Michel, OSF/T. It will be tailored to meet you in the comfort of your home or favorite peaceful place.

Upon registering, you will be given instructions on joining this retreat sponsored by the Sisters of St. Francis (200 St. Francis Avenue, Tiffin). Cost is $15. To register by next Wednesday, September 9, call Jenifer at 419-443-1485, e-mail her at peace@franciscanretreats.org, or visit their website at www.franciscanretreats.org.

Choosing Life in Christ

Choosing Christ in the World is the prayer journey of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola which allows the retreatant to follow the journey of the Spiritual Exercises without leaving the reality of the ordinary daily life. It requires a commitment to one hour of prayer daily using the materials provided, and a weekly one-on-one meeting with your spiritual director over about a nine-month period. For more information, call Sister Joanne Mary Frania, SND, at 419-913-9851 by next Tuesday, September 8.

Conversations About Faith by Zoom will be offered on Thursdays, September 3, 10, and 17;

October 1, 8, 15, and 29; and November 5, 12, and 19, 7:00-8:30 p.m., through the St. Francis Spirituality Center (200 St. Francis Avenue, Tiffin). Join in an informal discussion where matters of faith can be freely discussed and ex-explored. Participants bring their own topics of interest. Although the faith lens will be primarily Roman Catholic, all faith traditions are welcome. Conversations will be guided by Sister Edna Michel, OSF, M.A. (Theology) through Zoom. Cost is a free-will offering. For more or to register, e-mail peace@franciscanretreats.org or call 419-443-1485.

Drop Off Refuse and Recycling for TOLEDO Residents

sponsored by Engage TOLEDO for cleaner, safer neighborhoods, has several nearby collection events coming up. The following items are accepted: electronic waste (no TVs, CRT monitors, or appliances); tires (on or off the rim, limit 10, no commercial tires); document recycling; houseware goods; clothing (wearable or not); toys; bulky items; and refuse (no TVs, air-conditioners, refrigerators, freezers, or large appliances). Sites are open to City of Toledo residents only from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on the following Saturdays:

- September 12 Good Shepherd Church
3934 West Laskey Road
- September 26 Friendship Park
2930 131st Street

 Note: Latex paint will be accepted at $1 per gallon. No oil-based paints or stains will be accepted. Household hazardous wastes will also be accepted at the September events.

Conversations About Coping Through COVID-19

using Zoom is being offered through the St. Francis Spirituality Center (200 St. Francis Avenue, Tiffin). Sessions are 7:00-8:00 p.m. on Wednesdays, September 2, 9, 16, 23, and 30; October 7, 14, 21, and 28; and November 4, 11, 18, and 25. This free, online, weekly Zoom discussion group will help participants maneuver more gently through the emotional and spiritual challenges of this pandemic. Articles about coping with fear and stress can be found in both printed and online forms, yet peer support remains one of the best ways of handling crises.

We will hear from one another in a more personal setting how we are doing; if our reactions are normal; where to get additional assistance; how we've been able to help others; etc. Sister Edna Michel, director of St. Francis Spirituality Center, will facilitate. To register, call Sr. Edna Michel, OSF, M.A. (Theology) at 567-230-0061 or Jenifer at 419-443-1485, or e-mail peace@franciscanretreats.org. You may also participate via the telephone.
