HEIRLOOMS BY ARTISANS

When you choose Honorwood furniture you’re investing in heirloom quality pieces that can be passed down from one generation to the next. We’re committed to excellence in everything we do.

“When I was around nine I discovered the joy of turning wood into beautiful and useful objects in my grandfather’s woodshop. There I helped build aromatic cedar chests. As I got older I made crafts of my own for local buyers. In 2014 I started a partnership with my father. Using a lean production process, we combined a high level of quality control with a wide range of customization that’s rare in the furniture industry. But we still held fast to Old World wood-working techniques.

Our love of traditional methods doesn’t constrain us to traditional looks, though. I envision designs and styles suited to 21st-century lifestyles and look forward to applying advanced production techniques when possible. We also make sure you can personalize your furniture with a carefully selected range of finishes and colors. So your piece will always reflect your own signature style—to be enjoyed now, and by future generations.

Serving you in this way is highly satisfying to me, to my father, and to all our skilled artisans. it’s truly our continuing honor to serve you.”

James King
