The Stories of Immigration

This art exhibition will show the stories of new Mainers and their travels and experiences since 1990. This premier event will be hosted by Museum L-A in the old Bates Mill. Oral history accounts, fashion, art, photographs, and artifacts representing the voices from L/A will be featured. Light refreshments will be provided.

The exhibition is created by students from Edward Little High School and the project leaders are Muse Farah and Sara Kalonda with contributions from ELHS's Maine Cultural Heritage Class.
