

REA RE01 – Introduction to Race Engineering

Two-day Workshop: 13 – 14 August 2016

Unit 1, 14 Stoddart Road, Prospect, NSW. 8am -7pm.

Course created and presented by:

Blake Smith – 10 years as a Race Engineer in V8 Supercars and Indycar

Dejan Ninic – 15 years as a Race Engineer in WRC, AGT, WTAC and more

- 1 Course Objectives
- 2 The Role of the Race Engineer
- 3 Pre-Season
- 4 Pre-Event
- 5 Intra-Event
- 6 Post-Event
- 7 Post-Season
- 8 Radio Communications
- 9 Introduction to Data Analysis
- 10 Introduction to Aerodynamics
- 11 Thermal Management
- 12 Tyre Management
- 13 Brake Management
- 14 Lifting of Parts
- 15 Introduction to Vehicle Tuning
- 16 Media Management
- 17 Leadership

Price Information

Standard $1300

Early bird (book and pay before 1/8/16) $1100

Students $800

Price includes course books, snacks and dinner on Saturday night

 Course content may vary slightly depending on interest area and workshop progression*

For more information: www.raceengineeringacademy.com or info@raceengineeringacademy.com