Welcome

by Chris Chisnall

INTERNATIONAL CHEESE AWARDS CHAIRMAN

A warm welcome to everyone attending this year's International Cheese and Dairy Awards and Nantwich show.

It's a privilege to be a part of such a great show, supported by cheese makers, sellers and you the public who attend in your thousands to marvel at so many wonderful cheeses.

Once again we have had over 5,000 entries into the cheese competition from all around the world, our show attracts interest in the cheese industry from USA, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. We also have a first with an entry from Japan this year!

One of the objectives of the show is to grow the awareness of the show with the public, we want retailers and makers winning a gold medal at Nantwich to then shout about it on their shelves. So the great award winning products you see on the tables today – will be available on your local supermarket shelves.

So no matter what your favourite cheese happens to be, I hope you find something new and different during your visit - enjoy the show and have a great day.

Regards

Chris Chisnall

Nantwich Show - Press Event Success

A few weeks have passed since the International Cheese and Dairy Awards' press event, held for the second time in successive years, and we couldn't have asked for a better evening. We'd like to thank everybody who made it possible from those who sponsored, to those who attended and contributed towards the night.

A big thank you to Chris Chisnall who welcomed guests, Charlie Turnbull who spoke charismatically about the heritage of cheese and Richard Paul who provided superb cheese and wine pairings for guests.

Attendance exceeded 150 people including national daily newspapers, tabloids and key industry magazines such as The Guardian, The Sun, Grocery Trader and Speciality Food. Furthermore, many influential bloggers attended who we expect to share positive articles to the shows benefit. So far, almost 20 of those bloggers will be judging at this year's show, at the end of July.

All attendees were given a selection of award-winning cheeses before they jumped in their taxis home and we ensured all leftover food was donated to foodbanks.

Please be sure to check out The International Cheese and Dairy Awards Facebook page for the event photos if you haven't already and whilst we plan for next year's event, the ewe team look forward to seeing everybody at the awards in July.

CELEBRITY CHEF RECIPE

CARAMELISED ONION, COURGETTE & WENSLEYDALE QUICHE

'Real men eat quiche' is what the team told me as I made this. I don't know about that, but I can tell you that Wensleydale cheese is a great addition. It was originally made from ewes' milk by French monks from the Roquefort region who settled in Yorkshire, but commercial production by large dairies using cows' milk soon spread throughout Britain. In 2013, Yorkshire Wensleydale was granted PGI (protected geographical indication) status and is now made the proper way in Hawes and is the one to look for.

INGREDIENTS

1 tbsp olive oil
15g butter
2 red onions, sliced
sea salt and freshly ground black pepper
2 eggs
2 egg yolks
300ml double cream
100ml full-fat milk
2 small courgettes, around 225g, thinly sliced, lengthways
3 courgette flowers, sliced lengthways
175g crumbled Wensleydale cheese

FOR THE PASTRY

300g plain flour, plus a little extra for dusting
150g butter, chilled and diced
a pinch of sea salt
a few thyme sprigs, leaves picked (optional)
1 egg, beaten

SERVES 8

METHOD:

Start by caramelising the onions for the filling. Heat the oil and butter in a medium pan over a medium heat. Once the butter has melted, stir in the onions and a pinch of salt. Cover and cook over a low heat for 20–25 minutes, stirring every now and then until the onions have softened and caramelised. If they look as though they're burning, add a tablespoon of water and stir in. Spread onto a plate and set aside to cool. Make the pastry. Put the flour into a bowl, add the butter, salt and thyme (if using) and rub together with your fingertips until the mixture resembles coarse breadcrumbs. Add the egg and mix with a knife until the mixture forms clumps, then bring together lightly with your hands. Add a couple of teaspoons of water if the dough feels dry. Dust a clean work surface with flour and knead lightly and quickly until smooth. Wrap in clingfilm and chill for 30 minutes.

Preheat the oven to 180°C (160°C fan)/350°F/gas 4.

Lightly flour your work surface and roll out the pastry to a rough circle measuring about 32cm in diameter. Carefully lift the pastry into a 27-cm fluted tart tin and gently press into the corners.

To make the filling, put the eggs and egg yolks, cream and milk into a jug and whisk together. Season well and whisk again. Spread the onions over the base of the pastry, arrange the courgettes and courgette flowers on top and scatter over the cheese.

Pour the egg mixture into the tart tin and give it a little shake so that it spreads evenly. Carefully slide the tart tin onto a baking sheet and bake in the preheated oven for 45–50 minutes, until the filling is set.

Once cooked, take the quiche out of the oven, let it sit for about 5 minutes, then trim the pastry edges. Serve hot, warm or cold with a green salad. Leftovers keep very well for the next day but the filling will be a little firmer after a night in the fridge.

THE CHEESE PAVILION COOKERY DEMONSTRATION COMPÈRE Rowland Rivron

Rowland Rivron played the comic character "Dr Martin Scrote" on the Jonathan Ross chat show The Last Resort, and also played Scrote on Night Network's Bunker Show. This became a series for Channel 4 called Set of Six about Scrote and his brothers. In 1989 he and Jools Holland starred in The Groovy Fellers. In the early 1990s he presented his own chat show, Rivron, in which Roland, his guests and the entire set floated on the River Thames. He also made an appearance in the children's schools Series Cats' Eyes.

Rowland played drums on Fat Les's 1998 single "Vindaloo". As one half of the band "Raw Sex" (with Simon Brint) he also featured regularly on BBC TV's French and Saunders show.

He featured on drums in the "Sophisticated Fool" song and "All We've Got To Do Is..." song from A Bit of Fry and Laurie, also on BBC TV. He was a contributing writer to Rhythm, a UK drumming magazine, and is a regular guest on Jools Holland's BBC shows, in which he once demonstrated a square snare drum made by Robert Daniels. Roland appeared on the children's TV programme Blue Peter at age 15, playing the drums.

For eighteen months Rivron drummed for Jools Holland's Rhythm and Blues Orchestra. He is now playing with the Idiot Bastard Band with Adrian Edmondson, Phill Jupitus and Neil Innes.

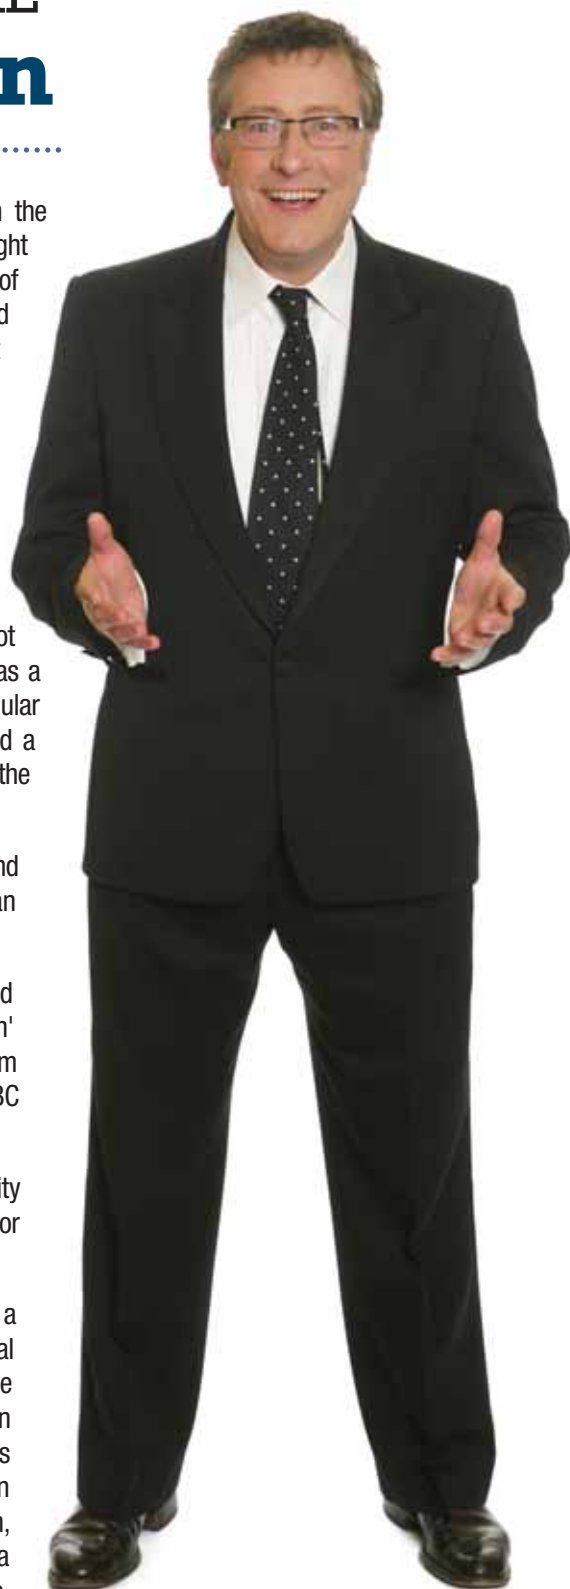

Rowland regularly presented television shows such as Holiday and Summer Holiday and presented the comedy BBC Radio 2 shows Jammin' and Radio Rivron, and starred in the Channel 5 programme Trust Me - I'm A Holiday Rep. He also co-presented the Saturday breakfast show on BBC London 94.9.

Rowland also appeared on Richard & Judy's New Position as the celebrity barman. He also presented the video to promote One Foot in the Grave for the title of BBC Britain's Best Sitcom in 2004.

He acted as a team captain on Question of TV on BBC One, and was a panellist on the first episode of Shooting Stars on BBC Two. A special celebrity edition of the show "Incredible Games" was broadcast at the end of its first season with Philippa Forrester and Keith Chegwin appearing alongside Rivron as the contestants in place of the usual kids taking part (who were shown to be tied up before the games started). In 2004 he hosted the short-lived regional gameshow The Price of Fish, starring local commercial radio presenters and shown only in the Anglia TV region. In 2006 Rivron was part of Channel 4's Come Dine with Me. He was the first celebrity to be voted out on 2007's edition of Comic Relief Does Fame Academy.

In 2012, Rowland was a contestant on Let's Dance for Sport Relief with his take on the Fatboy Slim music video Weapon of Choice, winning his heat and going straight through to the live final on Sport Relief, which he went on to win on 17 March 2012.

On 1 December 2012, he took part in an episode of Pointless Celebrities on BBC One, as well as a Sport Relief special on 21 March 2014, paired with Mark Durden-Smith.

THE CHEESE PAVILION - CELEBRITY CHEF

Will Holland

'Predicted to be one of the 10 most influential chefs of the next decade' by The Good Food Guide, Will Holland has worked in Michelin-starred restaurants since the age of 18 and was awarded his own Michelin star before he was 30 years old. Taking a relaxed approach, the focus of his food is on celebrating exemplary British ingredients, using excellent technique resulting in outstanding dishes.

Will wanted to be a chef for as long as he can remember. He grew up in Bristol in a household with an appreciation of good food and clearly recalls his first time eating Michelin-starred food, at two-star Lettonie with Chef Martin Blunos – an experience that still resonates today.

When Will was 13 he started working at a local butcher's shop after school and at weekends, where he stayed until leaving home. Will believes this early exposure to the food industry gave him a valuable insight and understanding which have stayed with him to this day. By 14 years old he was certain his future lay in becoming a chef. Inspired, Will organised for his secondary school work experience to be with Chef Michael Kitts at the Swallow Royal Hotel where the camaraderie and brotherhood of the kitchen brigade hooked him. After two years at catering college, Will secured his first job at Homewood Park in Bath working under Chef Gary Jones, now Raymond Blanc's Executive Chef at Le Manoir aux Quat'Saisons.

With a determination to succeed, Will subsequently held positions at some of the finest establishments across the UK including many influential years at Gravetye Manor in Sussex. Will joined Alan Murchison's L'Ortolan Restaurant in Berkshire in 2004 where he was promoted to head chef within a few months. In 2007 he opened L'Ortolan's sister restaurant La Bécasse in Ludlow. It was here that Will earned his first Michelin star just 18 months after opening the restaurant.

2014 marked a change for Will with the opening of Coast Restaurant in Pembrokeshire, Wales. Coast was received with wide acclaim, including being named 'AA Restaurant of the Year for Wales 2015-2016'.

Will joined The Atlantic Hotel as Executive Chef in October 2017, starting a new chapter for dining at the hotel. Will is passionate about the use of local, seasonal ingredients believing that amazing dishes are the result of amazing produce. Inspired by the rich and varied ingredients found on Jersey and in its waters, his menus are a celebration of the land and sea.

Over the years, Will has appeared on numerous national television programmes including as guest chef on Saturday Kitchen with James Martin, beating the Hairy Bikers on their Food Tour of Britain and was the central region champion on BBC's Great British Menu. Named 'UK Restaurant Chef of the Year 2016' by The Craft Guild of Chefs, in Autumn 2017 Will appeared in the grand final of the National Chef of the Year competition.

GOAT'S CHEESE, BEETROOT, BLACKBERRY, BALSAMIC VINEGAR AND TOASTED HAZELNUT SALAD

I love this salad – the combination of the goat's cheese with the earthy salty beetroot, sweet blackberries and acidic balsamic vinegar is just perfect. You can substitute the blackberries for a different berry as the seasons change throughout the year.

SERVES 4 / PREPARE ALL ITEMS IN ADVANCE

GOAT'S CHEESE MOUSSE

150g Goat's cheese
100g Cream cheese
50ml Double cream
5ml Toasted hazelnut oil

Place the goat's cheese and cream cheese in a food processor and blend until smooth. Add the cream and oil and blend until incorporated. Chill in the fridge before rolling into 20g balls.

SALT-BAKED BEETROOT

225g Plain flour
150g Table salt
20g Egg white
125ml Water
4 Beetroots (each weighing around 150g)

THE CHEESE PAVILION - CELEBRITY CHEF Jonathan Harrison

Jonathan Harrison is Chef Patron at The Sandpiper Inn, Leyburn, a 17th Century Inn in the heart of the beautiful Yorkshire Dales, which he has run with his wife Janine since 1999. While he has been there the business has won many accolades and strives to serve the freshest and finest of seasonal ingredients to create robust, country cooking.

Jonathan has done everything from TV work to cooking for the Heads of State at the G8 Summit, but feels his greatest achievement was winning the Roux Scholarship. Which Jonathan says is the “prize that just keeps on giving”, having travelled from New York to Tokyo with the Rouxs.

GLUTEN FREE POTATO GNOCCHI WITH SUMMER VEGETABLES, HERB PESTO AND PARMESAN CRISPS - SERVES TWO

INGREDIENTS

POTATO GNOCCHI

250g Marfona or King Edwards Potatoes

(or Good Floury Potatoes)

65g Gluten Free Plain Flour

(e.g. Free from Plain Flour Blend)

1 Poulet (Small) Egg

Dash of Extra Virgin Olive or Rapeseed Oil

SUMMER VEGETABLES

Small Bunch of Baby Carrots

Small Bunch Baby Leeks or Spring Onions

2 Baby Courgettes

Small Bunch of Breakfast Radishes

Small Handful of Broad Beans

Small Handful of Peas

PESTO

Large Bunch of Garden Herbs of your choice
(e.g. Soft Herbs)

2 Cloves of Roasted Garlic

50g Grated Parmesan

150ml Yorkshire Extra Virgin Rapeseed Oil

50g Roasted Pine Nuts

PARMESAN CRISPS

150g Grated Parmesan

Pinch of Salt

5g Gram Flour

METHOD:

1. Boil potatoes whole in their skin for 10 – 15 minutes, until just soft, test with a sharp knife. Peel the cooked potatoes, as quickly as possible, as the cooler they get, the less fluffy they become. Hold them in a tea towel while doing this, as they are very hot.
2. Using a ricer with a fine setting, press the potatoes into a bowl. Make a hollow in the pile of potatoes and pour in the egg, flour and oil. Bring ingredients together gently, avoiding overworking, as this can make the gnocchi hard and bouncy.
3. Once combined, you should have soft dough that holds together; doesn't feel sticky and can be easily shaped. Roll the dough into a cylinder shape, about the thickness of a standard sausage.
4. Chop the sausage into about 10-12 equal pieces. Flour your surface and roll the gnocchi into balls, while holding them very lightly.
5. Roll the gnocchi along the back of a floured fork, making an indent on the opposite side with your thumb; this small well will hold the sauce once cooked.
6. Drop the gnocchi into boiling water with a dash of oil, and cook until the gnocchi floats to the surface of the pan.
7. Cook vegetables in order, according to the cooking times.
8. Add all pesto ingredients to a pestle and mortar and combine, alternatively a food processor can also be used.
9. Mix ingredients for parmesan crisps and then fry in pan until lightly golden.

LE GRUYÈRE AOP[®] BORN IN SWITZERLAND, 1115 A.D.

*And remains the only cheese that's 100% Natural, 100% Traditional,
100% from Switzerland and 100% Le Gruyère AOP*

*AOP = PDO (Protected Designation of Origin) – must be traditionally and strictly prepared and produced within the region, thus acquiring the unique properties of Gruyère AOP cheese, to bear the name Le Gruyère AOP

Castle of Gruyères

Switzerland. Naturally.

When you're looking for the uniquely smooth, savoury Gruyère flavour, there's only one cheese that fits the bill: Le Gruyère AOP, since 1115 AD. The fact is, the flavour in any cheese is a product of its surroundings – the fields (only in the villages of Western Switzerland) where the cows that supply the milk are raised and fed, the way in which the cheese is produced (hand-made, in small batches, with fresh raw milk), and, of course, the centuries old recipe (slow-aged in the region's cheese cellars and caves). This is what creates the unique characteristics found in the only cheese that can call itself Le Gruyère AOP.

LE GRUYÈRE[®]
SWITZERLAND

Born in Switzerland in 1115.

FROM OUR FAMILY TO YOURS.

We've been crafting award-winning cheese on our family farm in Somerset, the home of Cheddar, for over 150 years. We believe in caring for the environment and farming sustainably, that's why we make all of our cheeses using our renewable energy generated on our family farm.

Today, we still use our Grandmother Ivy's secret recipe to create our truly tasty Cheddar. One you can use to create much-loved, home-cooked dishes for your family.

Bringing the finest Cheddar from Somerset to your table.

From our family to yours.

RULES

1. All exhibits must be staged between 10.00 a.m. and 6.00 p.m. on Monday 29th July 2019.
Exhibits can be brought direct to the Show, as above, or, can be delivered to GS Davies & Son, Quakers Coppice, Crewe Gates Industrial Estate, Crewe CW1 6FA, Tel: 01270 585445 by 12 noon on Friday 25th July 2019. Please state on entry form whether you will or will not be staging your own exhibit. If you wish the Society to stage your exhibits then exhibits must be delivered to GS Davies & Son (as above), and must have the outer carton of each exhibit marked with the following: International Cheese Awards; Class No; Exhibit No; Name of Exhibitor
Failure to mark exhibits correctly will result in exhibit not being staged.
The small white label, supplied by the Show, stating Class and Exhibit number must be placed on the TOP of the actual exhibit.
THIS FACILITY IS FOR THE USE OF EXHIBITORS FROM LONG DISTANCE WHO WILL FIND IT DIFFICULT TO DELIVER TO THE SHOW AND EXHIBIT THEMSELVES.
N.B. Exhibitors wishing to stage own exhibits should advise so with delivery of exhibits to GS Davies & Sons. This will enable the vehicle to be loaded in order which will allow such exhibitors to have their exhibits unloaded last (at their convenience). However please note that fork lift service is only available for a limited amount of time.
2. No exhibits to be removed from Show before 5.00 pm on Wednesday 31st July but any exhibits remaining in Cheese Marquee after 6pm will be deemed to have been left for the Society to dispose of whether or not they display a label. Please state on entry form whether you wish the Society to remove and dispose of the exhibit at the end of the Show. To help with this stickers will be supplied at time of entry. If you do wish to donate your entry to the Show please put the sticker on your product. We thank all Exhibitors who do donate Cheese which helps considerably with the Charity Fund.
NOTE: Failure to remove exhibits at specified times will result in the Society disposing of the exhibit and retaining any proceeds. No unauthorised removal of exhibits will be allowed. Any exhibitor nominating a third party to remove his exhibits must provide written authorisation giving Class and Exhibit numbers to the Chief Steward before any exhibit is removed.
3. If not exhibited by the manufacturer all entries must state maker and country of origin.
4. All exhibitors undertake to abide by the Society's general Rules and Regulations and will not hold the Society responsible in the event of any accident, loss or damage from whatever cause arising or to any article or exhibit or of mis-delivery of the same. Exhibitors are advised to have sufficient insurance cover for any items of value that may form part of an exhibit.
