FACULTY BEHAVIORS related to COURSE MATERIALS

Faculty assign 1.4 required course materials per course

80% of faculty assigned some type of non-paid-for material

64% said these materials are used alongside paid-for materials

FORMATS OF COURSE MATERIALS faculty prefer

- 30% Print
- 19% Print with digital component
- 7% Digital
- 9% Digital with digital component
- 22% Depends on the course

Compared to last year:
- Print Preference -11%
- Digital Preference +6%

Of the 33% who used Open Educational Resources, more than half could use help finding OER content, and many need help understanding the surrounding rules and laws.

THOUGHTS ON Open Educational Resources (OER)

#1 reason faculty aren’t more involved with affordability initiatives: not knowing where to start.

Source: Faculty Watch™: Attitudes & Behaviors toward Course Materials, 2018-2019