CREMATION OR BURIAL?

There is a choice of various crematoriums and cemeteries throughout Glasgow and our funeral home is situated within 30 minutes of 7 local crematoriums and more than 7 local cemeteries.

Cremation

McLean’s will help you complete the application for cremation form, we will also liaise with the doctor to ensure the cremation forms are complete (Form B&C) or the procurators fiscal form (Form E1). We will pay the doctors’ fees on your behalf. There is no fee for the procurators fiscal form (Form E1).

McLean’s will ensure all documentation to the local crematorium authority office 24 hours prior to the funeral taking place.

Documentation for cremation

- Certificate of registration (Form 14)
- Application for cremation, to be completed by the next of kin (Form A)
- Certificate of medical attendant, completed by the first doctor (Form B) and confirmatory medical certificate completed by the second doctor (Form C)
- Procurator fiscal’s authority to cremate (Form E1)

Cremated remains information

- Scatter in the garden of remembrance in the crematorium grounds
- Collected in a scatter tube or a bio degradable box for scattering at a place of your choice
- Collected in a small casket for burial
- Retained by Mclean’s until a decision has been reached

Burial

Burial in a new lair

MClean’s will arrange for a new lair to be purchased at the chosen cemetery and complete all the necessary paperwork.

New lairs at the cemetery are normally suitable for up to 3 coffin interments and several ashes casket interments.

Burials in an existing lair
To use an existing lair at the cemetery, you will require the lair certificate (Title Deeds). You will also require authorisation of the lair owner or representative.

If there is no documentation available

Complete an indemnity form for a missing lair certificate if you are the rightful owner.
