

Proposed Program	Youth Leaders	Description	Recommendations
Teen Tech Expo	Max Owen and Joey Gottlieb	The uCreate Space and uCreate Teen Volunteer Program plans to hold a Teen Tech Expo at the Stratford Library on March 10, 2018 during National Teen Tech Week. The Expo will consist of high/low/no-tech activities, highlighting the uCreate Space offerings. The Expo will include a drone and a set of VR goggles, which will be purchased for the event.	$250.00
Unlearn	Eileen Sholomicky	Bunnell High School plan to publish Unlearn , which is a literary magazine at Bunnell High School that addresses numerous teen issues, such as substance abuse, eating disorders, emotional issues, depression teen pregnancy and bullying. Unlearn helps Bunnell students to develop positive attitudes about these issues, and it offers students a safe way to express themselves through creative expression, writing and artwork without judgment. Also, Unlearn provides resources, which can be invaluable to students, devoting an entire page to phone numbers encouraging student to seek help should they need it.	$250.00
Give Your Gear Another Year Part II	Brianna D'Haiti	The Sterling House Youth Volunteer group, STROBE, plans to repeat their service project for a second year. STROBE will host a sports equipment drive. The collected equipment will be repaired as needed with grant funds and distributed to athletes in need in the Stratford community.	$250.00
Kick Start Youth Soccer Camp	Helen LeFever and Jackson Buchanan	Kick Start Soccer Camp plans to continue their program for Summer 2018, which is a youth volunteer led camp that introduces young players to the game of soccer. Kick Start involves 10 to 15 youth volunteers. It is geared for students in grades 3-6, teaching campers the fundamentals of soccer and learning to work and play as a team.	$250.00
Teen Volunteers	Yeimielez Cruz	The Town of Stratford Recreation Department offers summer volunteer opportunities for Stratford teens. The Teen Volunteer Program allows teens to be positive role models for others, while gaining positive assets, such as responsibility, leadership skills and experience.	$250.00
Cuddle Kits	Elizabeth Llubes and Chloe Awad	Chapel Street Elementary Be Kind/Asset Ambassadors plan to complete 'cuddle kits' for foster care children in the community. The kits will include: a fleece blanket, small flashlight, toothbrush, sketchbook, coloring materials and a canvas bag. Their mission is to help foster care children to be comfortable during the night.	$250.00