This advanced supervision group is designed for anyone who is accountable for supporting the growth and development of others, including psychotherapists, coaches, consultants, HR professionals, managers and leaders.

Together we will create a safe environment in which participants will have an opportunity to reflect on their work, explore practice dilemmas, ask questions and watch faculty work. In particular, having the opportunity to examine how their own unfinished business may be impacting their work will offer participants the possibility for personal and professional growth and development.

Benefits
As a participant in this program you will:
• Increase self-awareness
• Better articulate goals and challenges
• Gain insight into current practice issues
• Strengthen ability to assess client issues and see patterns
• Identify personal issues that interfere with optimal practice
• Explore practice dilemmas
• Increase skill in using oneself as an instrument of growth and development
• Utilize ongoing support and perspective from faculty and other participants

Participants
This program is suggested for graduates of Cape Cod Training Program and CCTP: The Third Week. It is for anyone who is accountable for supporting the growth and development of others, including psychotherapists, coaches, consultants, HR professionals, managers and leaders.
