

HOW TO PAY

The Duvall-Monroe Shuttle has a $1 suggested donation as a fare. All fares are used to offset the cost of the route. You may give the dollar to your driver or place it in the fare box when you get on the bus.

ORCA cards are not accepted on the Duvall-Monroe Shuttle.

BIKES

This bus has a bike rack that will allow for two bicycles. The driver will be happy to explain how to use it.

WHO CAN RIDE?

Anyone age 13+ can ride unaccompanied on the Duvall-Monroe Shuttle. Children under 13 must be accompanied. Riders must bring their own car seats as car seat laws apply.

ACCESSIBILITY

All buses are wheelchair equipped. If you require additional assistance, please let the driver know and we'll be happy to take care of you.

CONNECTING ROUTES

Going farther? SVT has routes that cover Snoqualmie Valley and we can help you to use the service. The Duvall-Monroe Shuttle connects to the Valley Shuttle and can get you as far as Carnation, Fall City, Snoqualmie and North Bend. From there you can get to Rattlesnake Lake, Mount Si and other great places to visit, work or shop. We can also connect you to King County Metro Transit routes and Community Transit routes. Call SVT at 425-888-7001.

Monroe Community Senior Center's Mobility Lifeline offers curb to curb service within 8 miles of the Center on Mondays, Thursdays and Fridays. If you have a specific destination that is not on the fixed route, MCSC may be able to get you there, please call 360-794-6359 for information.

SNOW/FLOODING/DELAYS

During most weather conditions, this shuttle will use the normal route but may be delayed based on the road conditions. If the bus is rerouted due to snow on the hills or other road conditions during bad weather, you can find out what's happening with this route by going to www.SVTBus.org Rider Alerts) or the Snoqualmie Valley Transportation Facebook page. We'll keep you updated on any rerouting that happens or delays on the route.

SNOQUALMIE VALLEY TRANSPORTATION COALITION

The Snoqualmie Valley Transportation Coalition is a group of Valley Cities, health care providers, human services organizations, non-profits, and riders who meet monthly to focus on transportation-related issues and how to solve them. The SVTC believes that affordable, accessible, and collaborative transportation is a necessity for life and are dedicated to creating improved transportation options for residents for years to come. SVTC began in 2017 with support from Easterseals and Hopelink. If you'd like to learn more about SVTC or how to join, please call 425-943-6760 or e-mail mobility@hopelink.org.

ABOUT SVT

As a project of Mt. Si Senior Center in North Bend, Snoqualmie Valley Transportation has been serving the Valley for more than 15 years. Our goal is to provide reliable, affordable, convenient and friendly service to all residents of Snoqualmie Valley while being responsible stewards of the funding we receive. We are supported by grants and donations from Snoqualmie Indian Tribe, WSDOT, King County Metro Transit, King County, and riders like you. Little cities, little buses; SVT Does Rural Right.
