

Artist's Statement | ISA LEVY

Painting is the vehicle which makes my language possible ! I am inspired by moments of joy, sadness, beauty or an intangible yearning, a reaching need to express inner emotional feelings !

The process is my real joy ! The immediate sensuality of paint onto a blank white canvas excites me ! Spreading, sculpting the paint, the smell, the colours and textures blending, seeping, bleeding into each other. Shapes appearing with the rhythm of emotion! Then I follow the painting's development like a servant follows its mistress, breathing the painting to life !

I can be inspired from within or an external inspiration and that being so my subject range is varied and unusual.

I am interested in creating a full and whole expression with each new canvas ! So each is a complete world in itself, rarely part of a series, although in the passing of time I can see I can see how some paintings can be grouped together !
