

ELLA BACHÉ CELEBRATES THE BEST IN AUSTRALIAN BEAUTY & SKIN AT THE ANNUAL ELLA AWARDS

Maria Savvides from Judy's Vogue and Nail Salon wins The Hall of Fame Award at the Ella Awards 2018

The Ella Awards held on Saturday the 8th of September at the Museum of Contemporary Art Australia, celebrated the leaders and innovators in Skin Solutions and business by bringing together experts from over 140 Ella Baché salons and David Jones stores nationwide.

The annual Ella Awards highlight Ella Baché's best and brightest by setting a national benchmark for beauty and skincare experts. Recognised and rewarded for all aspects of excellence in beauty therapy and small business, the evening focused on the women and men who embody the Ella Baché brand and continue to inspire, innovate and deliver results focused Skin Solutions and business excellence.

Reminiscing on the hay-days of Studio 54, the Museum of Contemporary Art was converted into a theatre of glitz and glamour – the perfect set to showcase Ella Baché's glowing talent.

Franchise Owners, Distributors, David Jones Counter Managers and Head Office staff gathered from all over the country for the illustrious event. The awards were presented by CEO Pippa Hallas, Director of Sales and Training Michael Knox, National Training Manager Gina Cook, Head of Education Jennifer Hayes, David Jones National Sales Manager Emily Black and special guest, comedian and TV personality Joel Creasey.

The Ella Award winners all embody superior customer service and are experts in creating unsurpassed Skin Solutions for their clients. These winners are all exceptional Ella Baché ambassadors who demonstrate the highest level of commitment and passion for what they do. The major winners of the evening won a trip overseas and were recognised for an outstanding 12 months of service.

Maria Savvides from Judy's Vogue and Nail Salon has been the Salon Owner for 25+ years and is a passionate loyalist for the Ella Baché brand. Maria alongside her sister Sue have worked together as exceptional and highly regarded Skin Therapists, with many of their clients coming to see them for over 25 years.

The Hall of Fame award recognises outstanding performance and commitment to the Ella Baché brand.

"We are extremely proud of this year's exceptional winners who all are shining ambassadors for Ella Baché and set the standard for the industry at large." Pippa Hallas, CEO Ella Baché.

For media enquires contact Judy's Vogue and Nail Salon Salon Owner, Maria Savvides on (02) 9570 5548.