Set in heart of Fish Creek this landmark building offers it's new owners a myriad of opportunities. Described by Back Roads host Heather Ewart as "a whimsical town straight from a story book, home to children's book authors and illustrators, world renowned botanical artists, musicians and sculptors".

15 Falls Road is currently being run as a business, Gecko Studio Gallery, offering exhibitions, framing, art materials and a busy cafe catering to locals and the many tourists who pass through the town on their way to Wilson's Promontory.

The property is to be sold as a blank canvas to the new owners without the Gecko Studio Gallery Business, Leaving unlimited opportunities for the entrepreneurial spirit.
