

Victor H. Flores – Executive Biography

---

Tribal & Finance Leadership Experience

Victor's current role serves as Chief of Staff and Finance Officer for the Absentee Shawnee Tribe where he has successfully led for 3 years. He additionally serves as the Finance Officer for the Absentee Shawnee Tribal Health System. His previous 20 years of leadership and financial experience was in the private sector for multi-billion dollar and multi-million dollar organizations, where he held senior leadership roles such as Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, VP of Corporate Finance, Corporate Director of Operations and Director of Finance. In every organization, he excelled in business development and financial acumen within his field. Additionally, he is an adjunct professor for Southern Nazarene University for the Master's Level Finance classes. Victor also serves as an adjunct professor for the OSU Tribal Finance and Accounting Program. He is also the Founder and President of the Oklahoma Tribal Finance Consortium which brings together tribal treasurers, tribal finance directors and tribal leaders over finance and economic development from the 39 Tribal Nations residing in Oklahoma. Through his consortium role he brought together the Oklahoma State University Spears School of Business, University of Oklahoma School of Law and NAFOA to create the OSU Introduction to Tribal Finance and Accounting program.

Education & Affiliations

Victor holds a Masters in Healthcare Administration (Specialty in Accounting) from Trinity University in San Antonio and a Masters in Business Administration (Specialty in Financial Services) from Oklahoma Christian University. He is an active member and regular attendee of Native American Finance Officer's Association (NAFOA). He is also active with Health Finance Management Association (OK Chapter) where he was instrumental in bringing OK tribal health systems into the Chapter. He is also a member of American College of Healthcare Executives and Medical Group Management Association.

Community

In addition to dedication and achievement in his field, Victor is also committed to his community. He routinely mentors multiple tribal members from the Absentee Shawnee Tribe. Additionally, he serves on Oklahoma Governor's Committee on Native American Partnerships which is focused on economic development for tribal nations residing in OK. He also serves on the OK Business Ethics Consortiums where he has encouraged OK tribal nations to interact and learn alongside local OK big business. Victor is a strong supporter of health related organizations. He has served on the Board of Directors for JDRF (Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation) as the President-Elect and VP of Business Development. Other community involvement includes participation in the United Way Planning Committee, Emerging Leaders, Central Oklahoma Integrated Network System, Single Parent Support Network, Positive Directions Mentor, multiple Chambers of Commerce, multiple church boards and support of multiple non-profit charities.