Antimicrobial Prescribing in Regional and Remote Hospitals

30% of the population and 76% of all public hospitals are located in regional or remote areas of Australia.

There is greater noncompliance with guidelines in regional and remote public hospitals.

Access to pharmacy support is one of the biggest barriers facing the implementation of Antimicrobial Stewardship programs in regional and remote hospitals.

Telehealth is improving access to specialty support services for Antimicrobial Stewardship programs in regional and remote Australia.