COVID-19 Nonprofit Response Fund Grantees

Nonprofit organizations that have received grants from the COVID-19 Nonprofit Response Fund include:

- Bella Ease/Teen Reach (Quincy): Distribution of snack and dinner to participants of the Teen Reach program and additional families in need.
- Cheerful Home (Quincy): General support for emergency child care needs of essential workers.
- Douglass Community Services (Hannibal): Emergency food distribution, including snack and evening meal.
- The Food Bank of Central & Northeast Missouri: Emergency food distribution to food pantries in Clark, Lewis, Marion, Monroe, Ralls, Knox, and Shelby Counties, MO.
- Harvest Outreach Ministries (Hannibal): Support of the Loaves & Fishes program, distributing take-home in collaboration with Hannibal Nutrition Center.
- Horizons (Quincy): Support of the soup kitchen and food pantry.
- Quanada (Quincy): Shelter services for domestic violence victims compliant with social distancing orders.
- Salvation Army of Quincy: Shelter services compliant with social distancing orders and emergency food distribution.
- United Way of Adams County: Support of the Adams County Coronavirus Relief Fund, supporting unmet financial needs of individuals and families.
- Midwest Youth Services (Brown County, Illinois): Homeless youth programming in Brown County; including food, shelter, clothing and hygiene items.
- OATS Transit (Hannibal): Transportation costs and cleaning supplies for essential transportation.
- The Child Center, Inc. (Northeast Missouri): General and program support for victims of child abuse, including a new online social media dangers training program for parents/guardians.
- Barry Food Pantry (Barry, Illinois): Support for food purchases and transportation costs.
- LaHarpe CUSD #327: Assistance providing food for students residing in the LaHarpe School District.
- Memorial Hospital Foundation (Carthage, Illinois): Assistance for tents and technology to support curbside nurse visits.
- Two Rivers Regional Council of Public Officials (Quincy): Support needed of individual assistance for food, housing and utilities.
- Adams County Health Department (Adams County): Surface Pro computer for emergency preparedness manager to work remotely and off-site doing COVID-19 education.
- Carl Sandburg College Foundation (Carthage, Illinois): Student crisis grant.
- Dallas City CUSD #327: Feeding students during COVID-19 school closure.
- Lutheran Church of St. John (Quincy): Support for food pantry.
• Mental Health Center of Western Illinois: Funds for laptops to provide shelter in place virtual counseling
• YMCA of Hannibal: Emergency childcare for essential workers.
• YMCA of Quincy: Support to help meet federal matching grant program for housing program lost due to fundraiser cancelation.
• Boy Scouts of America – Mississippi Valley Council #141: Support for virtual scout programming during the COVID-19 crisis.
• Care Net Pregnancy Services of Quincy- General operating support.
• Girl Scouts of Central Illinois: Support for virtual girl scout programming.
• The Village of the Blue Rose (Clarksville, Missouri): General operating support.
• Turning Point Recovery Centers (Hannibal): General operating support of tele-counseling services during pandemic.